Henry of Kwangju, Korea, Sister Immaculata's ecclesiastic superior; and at left is Sister Mary Stephanic, a Columban missionary nun at Mokpo, Korea Sister Mary Stephanic was instrumental in a longing for the Korean nun to come to Boston for the delicate operation. She had written her sister, Virginia King a nurse at Carney. Miss King, in turn, told hospital officials who arranged for the surgery. The nuns and Archbishop Henry arrived in Boston in early June. After extensive tests, the operation was performed by Dr. Joseph P. Lynch, chief of thoracic surgery at the hospital. (RNS Photo)
