

Stahl-Frank Wedding Held

Cornell — St. Mary's of the Lake Church at Watkins Glen was the setting on Saturday morning, Aug. 17, for the double ring wedding ceremony of Miss Margaret Louise Frank and Joseph Robert Stahl Jr.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Frank of 318 S. Decatur St., Watkins Glen, and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Stahl of 150 W. William St., this city.

The marriage was performed by the Rev. Joseph Hogan before an altar arranged with white flowers. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Ellen Babcock of Watkins Glen was the maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Miss Mary K. Carpenter of Watkins Glen and Miss Clare Montemoreno of Clyde.

Best man was Robert Grosjean of Corning, and ushering at the church were William Ogden of Corning and John Frank Jr. of Watkins Glen, brother of the bride.

K. of C. Reelect Emmett Burke

Emmett Burke of Yorkers was unanimously re-elected to the office of Supreme Director of the Knights of Columbus for a term of three years at the Supreme Council Convention held at Milwaukee.

Burke is a member of La-Rabida Council, No. 166, of Yorkers and served as State Deputy of the New York State Council, Knights of Columbus during which time the programs of the Student Loans, the Decent Literature, Charitable and Benevolent, and the Oratorical programs were instituted. He served on the Youth Committee of the Supreme Council.

Painted Post Masses Listed

Cornell — The regular schedule of Sunday Masses resumed last Sunday at the Church of the Immaculate Heart of Mary in Painted Post. On that day, and continuing now through the Fall and Winter months until next mid-June, the Sunday Masses will be 7, 8:30, 10 and 11:30 a.m. The Rev. Harold P. Rogers is pastor.

Openings For Bowlers

Cornell — The Thursday Night Catholic Men's League still has openings for two teams, Floyd Root, league secretary and treasurer, said this morning. Interested men may contact him, he said.

Activity in the eight-team league will begin at 8 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 6, in the Cornell Bowl.

'Equal Aid' Supporters Meet

Lay Catechist Course To Begin In Ithaca

Ithaca — A Lay Catechist Training Course will begin on Monday evening, Sept. 9, at 7:30 p.m. in Room 19 of Parochial School on North Plain Street. All men and women, 21 and over, are invited. Further information about the teaching religion to Catholic Lay Catechist program in Immaculate Conception Parish may be obtained by calling Sister Margaret, superior, at the Mission, Holgers, Convent, All Saints.

THE COURSE consists of 16 weekly sessions taught by the Mission Sisters of the Sacred Heart on "Methods of Teaching." At a later date, those in the course attend 16 weekly sessions on "Doctrines." Those who have completed Charles Phillips Gardens, son of the course receive certificates of completion of Riverdale, qualifying them to teach as and the late Angelina Bonanni "Certified Lay Catechists."
