Tea At Newman Center Sunday

Preparing for the tea at the new Newman Oratory, the religious and social center for Catholic students at the University of Rochester, are the Rev. I. John Hedges and his committee of UR alumnae and parishioners of old St. Mary's Church. The tea will be held Sunday, Sept. 28 from 2 to 5 p.m. at the new center, 581 Mt. Hope Ave. All are invited. The building was purchased by the Newman Club on Sept. 3 from Frank Skorupa to be used as a residence for the first full-time chaplain at UR and to serve as a center for social and religious activities for the members. Father Hedges is in the process of redecorating and furnishing the building. Several items of furniture have been donated to the center. Shown with Father Hedges are Miss Sara R. Malone, chairman of the tea, seated left; Mrs. Melbourn Porter, seated right; and standing from left, Miss Elizabeth T. Valent, Miss Paullette Jo Marcello and Mrs. Paul Moran.

Legion Sets State Meet

The New York Regional Senatus of the Legion of Mary has set up its schedule of Workshops for the coming Conference to be held at the Hotel Commodore in New York City Oct. 10 through 13. The Senatus covers the states of New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, and numbers over 10,000 Legionaries.

"Christianity in Action" is the theme of the conference. Rev. Edward J. Reynolds, episcopal director of the New York Senatus will deliver the welcoming address, and the principal speaker will be James Wallace, president of the Brooklyn Comitium.

Workshops dealing with the main features of the conference, The Apostolate to the Crowd, Columbian Method of Recruiting, The Patricians, Bookbarrows, Juniors, Crusade for Souls and Social Service will be chaired by presidents and officers from Comitia and Curiae in the Senatus area.

Twenty priests who are spiritual directors of the Legion from various places in the state area will be the speakers at the workshops. The principal speaker will be James Wallace, president of the Brooklyn Comitium.

GOD LOVE YOU!
By MOST REV. FULTON J. SHEEN

The Church is like the human body and must grow proportionately in all parts of the world. An overgrown right arm and a withered left arm would be abnormal. So the Church must never create an imbalance, namely, giving aid to Asia, for example, and ignoring Africa.

Further, in some areas special approaches must be used. One wonders if we are at our maximum efficiency in Latin America. We are sending a few priests, Sisters and Brothers to Chile, a few to Brazil, a few to Peru, a few to Bolivia, etc. These either take over the parishes built up by the Latin American clergy, or else build churches in isolated areas. This is good, but is it good enough?

Two facts will help us find a solution:
1. Communism is gradually taking over Latin America. Philip H. Barbour, former ambassador to Cuba, says that Cuba controls the New World. But Cuba, supported by Russia, has already staged military demonstrations in Peru, Venezuela, Mexico and Chile. It has an International Brigade trained by and under the direction of the Russian Col. Jaroslav Valensky.
2. The inflammable materials of Latin America are the slums where hundreds of thousands live without sewerage, running water, steady employment, sanitary conditions, and decent clothing. The Communists start by promising them prosperity. As their hunger for power grows, Communism is a lot of help to these people. It is a hope and a hope will be kind of bread for a day.

In the light of these facts should not we in the United States form also an International Brigade of priests, Sisters, Brothers and laymen who would operate as teams?
1. These teams would go into the slums and live with the people and under the same economic conditions.
2. The million dollars a year The Society for the Propagation of the Faith gives to Latin America could be used by them to improve their housing, build clinics, and give them adequate drinking water, etc.
3. If economic conditions become intolerable, these teams would lead the destitute people into uncultivated land of the rich, divide it among them in small plots that they may live as human beings. Property rights are not absolute in the face of starvation and destitution. The slums, not a few isolated areas, should be the object of our labor.
4. These teams would recognize that the Gospel of Love of God must first be practiced by them as members of Christ's International Brigade through love of neighbor in the slums, only when the poor are fed will they listen to the preaching of the Gospel. Our Lord gave the Eucharist after He fed the 5,000 who were in danger of fainting.

May the Holy Spirit inspire us to unity with efforts, to attack the problem where it is centered, not in the periphery. And may the faithful who know that the Holy Father through his Society for the Propagation of the Faith gives a million to Latin America, help him to give more.

GOD LOVE YOU TO J.F. for $5 (Recently six family of nine was presented with a donation of grocery supplies. We decided this gift from God should be shared with some less fortunate people, so here is a portion of our grocery money... to D.D. for $5 in gratitude for having no cavities on the occasion of my last visit to the dentist... To J.H. for $10 I won this in a baseball pool and hope it will help in your good work...
At a loss for gift suggestions? Turn them into a gain for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith by selecting our smart cartoonists (Lester or Stuart), (Lester or Stuart) charm. Make of gold-colored Hamilton finish with the faded red insignia of the Society, these items make ideal presents. Specify the items you desire, enclose as minimum offering of $3 each plus and send your name and address to The Society for the Propagation of the Faith, 164 Fifth Avenue, New York 1, New York.

Refresher Course For Grad Nurses
The six-week refresher course for graduate nurses begins Tuesday, Oct. 1, in St. Mary's Hospital auditorium under the direction of Donald Insley, R.N., assistant director of nursing service.
CLASSES, on Tuesday and Thursday from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m., stress current methods and techniques in a comprehensive review of modern nursing practice.
Department supervisors, head nurses, and school of nursing instructors will participate in these sessions. These classes are sponsored by St. Mary's In-Service Education Department.
This refresher course serves as a part of St. Mary's program of service to the community.

Cenacle Lists Jesuit Father
A weekend retreat will be held at the Cenacle Retreat House, 693 East Ave., Sept. 27-29, conducted by the Rev. James P. Malone, S.J., of the faculty of McQuid Jesuit High School.
THE NUCLEUS of the group will be nurses from the area. This retreat will be conducted on a general basis, and several places will be open for anyone wishing to attend.
The retreat opens with dinner on Friday evening, and closes Sunday afternoon after Benediction.
Ample time is allowed for private interviews with the Retreat Master and the Cenacle Sisters. During leisure time the library and grounds surrounding the house are available to retreatants.
Reservations may be made by phoning the Cenacle at BR 1-8755.
