Miss Warner, who has held her post at 50 Chestnut Street for the last 15 years is stepping down from her job. The reason? "At 81, I feel that I've got to take it a bit easier!'

THE CHEERFUL octogenarian whose name has long been synonymous with the downtown Catholic library in the Columbus Civic Center, has had a long and interesting life.

After graduating from the old City Normal School in 1904, Miss Warner began a teaching career which covered 45 years. Most of those years were spent Rochester, but she fitted in years of Catholic girls schools in Buffalo and Asheville, N.C. Her last local position was at Charlotte High, from which she retired in 1949. She specialized in English and mathematics, but while at Charlotte also assisted in library work.

Her library background brought her to the attention of Father Albert Shamon in 1947. As Moderator of the Monroe County Council of Catholic Chaplain at the school. Women, he was looking for a Head Librarian for the Catholic Chaplain at the school. Evidence Library. The Council was just assuming sponsorship of the lending library, which dates from 1932. At his invitation, Miss Warner volunteered for the post and has been at it ever since.

YOU READY TO JOIN THE WHISKEY REBELLION TONIGHT?

Every day of the year, a few men, a handful of rebels, stop buying their whiskey by habit.

They join the ranks of the discriminating people who buy by choice. Bellows Partners Choice.

Why?

They hear from someone (maybe their bartender, maybe their best friend) that Partners Choice is gentle on the tongue. And it is.

There's a good explanation. It's made with more gently aged premicem whiskies.

They hear, too, that it's gentle on the pocket (only $6.19 a Quart). In fact, Partners Choice is the gentle taste in whiskey. Don't wait till someone tells you...be a rebel Instead of habit ... make it "Choice," the gentle whiskey from Bellows.
