Mission Planned At Holy Family, Auburn

Auburn — Holy Family Church, 83 North Street, has scheduled a parish mission beginning Sunday, Oct. 13, and terminating on Saturday, Oct. 27. Special services will be held Sunday through Saturday at 7:30 p.m. Time of the morning mission Masses and sermons will be announced by the missionaries who will conduct the services. The first week is designated for all women, including girls 14 years and over; the second week is for men, including boys 14 years and over.

Two Oblate Missionary Fathers who specialize in the type of spiritual ministry will conduct the mission. They are the Reverend Fathers James V. Cleary and T. Francis Curry. The talks will be centered upon problems encountered in living the Christian life in the modern world.

The Reverend Father William E. Davis, M.A., pastor of Holy Family Church, says that "a mission is a very special time of receiving God's grace and strength and all adult members of the parish should make a special effort to attend."

Financial projects such as these are the outgrowth of weekly discussions of the needs of the missions throughout the world.

Nurse Aides Certified At St. Mary's

Certificates of achievement were given to 16 nurse assistants by Sister Mary Agnes, Director of Nursing Service at St. Mary's Hospital, Oct. 10.

These assistants after successfully completing St. Mary's new program of pre-employment training are now ready to be assigned to a floor unit.

Fifteen women and one man were recruited, screened and tested by the New York State Employment Office. All are high school graduates and have passed a course examination prior to receiving the certificate. Miss Mary Carroll, R.N., assistant director of In-Service Education was the coordinating instructor for the three week training period.

Those in the course received instruction in lectures and on the floors from qualified nursing personnel. These lectures and practical demonstrations allowed them the opportunity of active class participation in the duties they were trained to perform.

The nurse assistant performs certain duties as a member of the nursing team. As each becomes capable as a member of a team, St. Mary's employs program for promotion and advancement is afforded them. St. Mary's program of employee benefits and privileges in total, approximate 25 per cent of total annual income.
