Fund Drive

McQuaid Tops 40 per cent

McQuaid Jesuit High School campaign is the gift to the school of a share of stock in the Rochester Red Wings baseball team—a young graduate who is community minded, as retired by his purchase of the stock back in 1957 to encourage baseball—then giving it up to help in his little way his school in its present financial situation. This type of spirit the campaign.

McQuaid Jesuit High School has hit the $181,000 mark in its fund drive for $250,000, Edward Springer, campaign chairman, announced this week.

The campaign is currently in its advanced gifts phase and will make its general appeal later.

Among the many corporations which have committed themselves since the last formal report are the Xerox Corporation, Rochester Telephone Co., Bausch & Lomb, Valley Cadillac, Sibleys, Harris Food Markets, Taylor Instrument, Mosher Forging, Rochester Transit and Cashelle Electric.

Philanthropic organizations totalled to and pledged close to $12,000.

Approximately 25 per cent of the alumni of the school have made pledges to their alma mater.

SPRINGER REPORTED, "An interesting sidelight of this

Father Robert Grewen, S.J., rector at McQuaid, thanked all the members for time, effort and energy they were expending on the campaign. More workers were reported as enrolled for the general phase of the campaign.

Golden Jubilee Marked By Millers

The 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Miller was celebrated on Sunday, Oct. 20 with Mass at Holy Rosary Church. Charles W. Miller and Paulina Knittel, with Edward Miller and Violet Knittel as sponsors, were married in St. Michael's Church, Lyons, by the late Rev. Bernard W. Gomeringer on Oct. 22, 1913.

They have three sons: William L. Miller of Hartford, Conn., Victor D. of this city, and J. Marvin of Lyons, one daughter, Miss Marcia Miller of this city; 10 grandchildren, and one great-granddaughter. Reception was held on Sunday at Rochester Historical Society, 485 East Ave. for over 100 relatives and friends.

Mr. Miller, a former yardmaster in Lyons yards, moved to Rochester 22 years ago, to take a position with Rochester Products as shipping supervisor but retired from there, eight years ago on account of ill health. Miller, better known to most people as "Billy Miller" especially in Lyons and surrounding towns, as a singer and jest player, directing home talent shows, black-face and Irish Minstrels a specialty, besides being a soloist in St. Michael's choir for close to 50 years.
