Aquinas Faces Kingston

By WALT JOHNSON

Central Catholic of Kingston, Pa., joins a select group of visiting squad and Mr. Mike for Aquinas Institute tomorrow when Kingston invades Rochester's Red Stadium. Kickoff is scheduled for 2 p.m.

The Pennsylvania Quakermen served fair notice of what the Irish may expect as they roared to a 20-7 triumph over unranked Old Forge last weekend.

The lightning-fast Kingstonites scored two touchdowns in their game on a long pass and two more on the ground, one on the 3-yard run.

Kingston, rounding a 3-1-1 record, had a close one against Wyoming Valley West, 13-12, and lost to Wyoming Seminary, 19-13, and has been in the winning column every other game.

Coach Dante Pesaro's club is paced offensively by Paul Kopanski and Jim Cusumano. Both boys are outstanding, fullback John McIntyre and halfback Vince Yarnall have displayed great running speed in churning ability in the five games to date. Another standout is tackle Bill Lynch, playing his third year of varsity ball and starting left tackle.

...and Cleveland as they prepare for Kingston.

Coach Jim Kepler had nothing but praise for his boys in spite of Aquinas' 26-12 loss to Cleveland. In fact, he pointed out, Aquinas had scored more points against it's foes than any other team this season. The Cleveland power outmatched the Little Irish line by 30 pounds and the backfield by 21 pounds.

The ultra-strong Cleveland club is presently having difficulty filling its schedule of ten games each year for lack of competition. The Pennsylvania Ohio aggregation considers Aquinas a worthy opponent and looks forward to the annual visit to Memorial Stadium.

Notwithstanding the great spirit and drive against Kingston will be tackles Jim Schleicher and Bill Klaer, line backer Dick Winterroth and guards Hank Schuster and Dick Hitrano.

Kings Win 5th Game Over Irish

Bishop Kearney's J.V. football team scored the 5th victory in five games yesterday in a 24-0 triumph over Aquinas. Playing inspired football from the word go, the Kings were never in trouble against the Irish. After driving 50 yards the first time they had the ball, only to be stopped on the five, the Kings got their first marker on some mud taking by quarterback Phil Smith.

Smith faked a pass, and just before being hit, pitched—out to Scott Shales who swept left end 31 yards for the TD. Kearney hit paydirt for the second time on the exact same play, with Shales rumbling from six yards out. Shales scored his fifth touchdown in the last two games on a ten yard run, after a drive which started on the Kearney 46, and the Kings closed at 18-0 half-time feld. The Kings notched their final score mid-way through the fourth quarter on an 7 yard run by Walt Szerlacki.

THE KINGS stoutly shelter-ized and held the Aquinas offense to check the sophomore line game. Aquinas' lone threat was stalled late in the fourth quarter when Szerlacki recovered a loose ball on the Kearney 20. So far this year, Kearney has surrendered only one TD.

The combination of Smith and Shales, backed by the strong running of Szerlacki and Szerlacki provide a below-par for the Irish defense. Their Kearney backfield was given excellent blocking support by Jim Oberst, Bill Mortenson, Randy MacKenzie, Ray Jeffers and Larry Morgan. Dennis Szerlacki, Don Mongcell, Jim Arcuraco, Oberst, and Szerlacki led the Kearney defense.

The Kings will be hoping for their ninth straight win when they take on Madison High Friday afternoon, Oct. 25, on the Madison Turf—4:30.

Kearney Booters Win Seventh

The Bishop Kearney J.V. soccer team run its victory streak to seven games as they took... over the J.V. squads from Marshall and McQuaid.

Against Marshall, the Kings had to stage a thrilling comeback as they trailed 2-1 going into the final period. Then with a little less than five minutes remaining, Kearney's Ray Cifelli evened the score with a shot that just sailed by the surprised Marshall goalie. The game then went into double over-time and Cupello came through again with two more goals giving him four for the day, as the Kings finished on top 4-2.

The game against McQuaid provided fewer problems for Kearney as they romped over the Jesuits 7-0.

This time Cupello was held to three goals, which makes 18 in seven games for the high-scoring center-forward. Also getting into the scoring columns were Dan Gillen, Mike Kellogg, Norm Kunasik, and Wally Rogers with a goal each. Goalie Ken Kocsech was a standout in the nets as he posted his third shutout of the season.

Kearney coach George Joseph was very pleased with his team's performances and he was especially proud of the defense as they have allowed less than a goal per game.

Next for on the schedule is Jefferson who have lost only two games all season, and coming in the heads of Kearney, 3:30—R.P.

Bob Davies To Conduct Cage Clinic

Bob Davies, former Rochester Royals great during the heyday of professional basketball here, will conduct a clinic for area college and high school coaches and players in conjunction with the first annual Kodak College Basketball Classic Dec. 27-28.

In announcing plans for the clinic tournament director Lee Harmon said Davies — who guided many Harmon-coached teams — will be assisted by Bobby Wanzer, another ex-Royal backcourt star. He said the clinic "provides area coaches and their players with a fine opportunity to watch and be learn from two of the game's finest players and all-court strategists."

Players from the University of Rochester and St. John Fisher College—where Wanzer is now director of athletics—will demonstrate game situations and individual techniques as explained by the clinic instructors. Davies is currently director of 200 clinics throughout the country.

The clinic will be held Saturday morning, Dec. 28, at the War Memorial, site of the two-day classic between Amherst College, Brown University, Colgate University, and the University of Rochester.

AQUINAS STARTERS Steve Chamberlain and Bob Wagner are now playing for John Carroll University where Bob is first string quarterback for the Ohio eleven.

Mooney High Defeats Notre Dame of Batavia

The Cardinal Mooney J.V.'s remain undefeated in five games after they handed Notre Dame of Batavia J.V.'s a 37-6 loss East Sunday at Batavia. The first scoring of the game came quickly as Ted Ferrari scampered 75 yards with one intercepted pass. Jim Nealon kicked the extra point. Mooney again added pos session of the ball and Ferrari scored a second time on a 14 yard sprint through the line.

The Notre Dame squad gave the Mooney men something to worry about as they march 73 yards with their ball, scoring on a 15 yard touchdown pass. This was only the second time that the Mooney defense was scored upon. The first quarter ended with the score at 13-6.

The Cardinals ended Coach Jim Van Allen's worries as they added 17 more points before the end of the first half. Fullback Dan Regan scored on a 23 yard run with Nealon pass ing to Ken Harrington for the extra point. Ted Ferrari scored a third time on a 24 yard sweep of the right end, with Nealon again kicking the extra point. A spectacular 30 yard field goal by Pat Walsh with only 5 seconds remaining in the first half, added another 3 points to the Mooney score.

THE CARDINALS had a good chance to show their reserve power in the second half as the bench was emptied and good performances were turned in by Terry Murphy, Steve Guilfoyle, Pat Tortorello, Mike Riley, Don Mooney, Jim Kehoe, Jim Werth, and Tony Galetto.

Halfback Jim Mettler scored the only touchdown of the second half when he carried 13 yards into the end zone. Jim Nealon kicked the extra point.

The Cardinals were hampered by accidentals throughout their defensive line, but Dan Pegano did a good job at the halfback slot, replacing Dave Pearson. Pegano carried ten times for a total of 61 yards.

The Cardinals play host to the McQuaid J.V. eleven on Saturday, Oct. 26 at 2 p.m. at the Aquinas Stadium. McQuaid also enjoys an undefeated record of 3-0, one of their games being a 25-0 win over the Aquinas J.V. team.

The Cardinal's Frosh defeated Brockport Frosh 14-7 last Friday. Otto Davis and Richard Musselow scored for Mooney.

The Mooney Frosh meet the McQuaid Frosh on Saturday, Oct 26 at 10 a.m. on the McQuaid field

Jesuit Father Gerald Lee Catholic Action moderator of the diocese, is also a member of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization which has served as president of the United States committee for the coming observance.

Knights Take First Win

The Knight Movers of McQuaid finally broke the victory drought after 10 losses and 2 ties by jolting Spencerport, 3-0, on Tuesday at McQuaid. That's the same Spencerport team that out-classed the Knights, 6-0, earlier in the season as coach Don White and his squad, newly reinforced by his sophomore starters from the jayvee ranks, had even more reason to rejoice.

Chuck Kober, Roger Kane and Joe Mancuso booted the McQuaid goals, and Dave Colmer did the great tending behind a tough defense.

The win ended a frustrating run the kids gave the Knights lose 6 matches by a single goal. Mancuso tried hard to land that first win with 3 goals against West last week, but the match ended in a 3-3 deadlock.
