

Georgetown Honors 7 From City

Georgetown University conferred bronze medals of honor upon six Rochester alumni of the Jesuit institution in Washington, D.C. last week.

Receiving the awards from Very Rev. Edward B. Dunn, S.J. president were:

Dr. Peter A. Badamy, nose and throat specialist, member of the advisory board for Holy Cross Church's fund drive, board member of Nazareth Academy and fellow of the American Geriatric Society.

Hon. James P. B. Duffy, K.S.G., K.M. former congressman and member of the New York State Supreme Court and oldest living alumnus of Georgetown.

Walter B. D. Hickey, president of Hickey-Freeman Co. and one of four brothers who graduated from Georgetown.

Louis Langie, chairman of the board of Langie Fuel Service, who has contributed time and money to the development of the university.

R. Edward Schlesinger, patent attorney, who holds three law degrees from Georgetown.

Dr. Joseph Lane, attending surgeon emeritus at St. Mary's Hospital and former president of the New York State Medical Association.

An additional bronze medal was awarded to Howard Hanson, director of the Eastman School of Music and winner of the 1944 Pulitzer Prize for music, who is not a Georgetown alumnus.

Alumnae Activities

Rochester area alumnae of Catholic colleges outside the Diocese of Rochester report local activities as follows:

New Rochelle
Rev. Henry Atwell, editor of the Catholic Courier Journal, was guest speaker at the annual Communion-Breakfast held by the alumnae of College of New Rochelle at the Downtown Motor Inn Sunday, Oct. 27.

The group first attended Mass at Our Lady of Victory Church and gathered at breakfast to hear Father Atwell speak about the Vatican Council and the role of the emerging layman today. Father Atwell returned last week from Rome.

A brief business meeting and discussion followed the talk. Mrs. Donald Coffey was chairman and Mrs. F. X. Sheller acted as toastmistress.

Misericordia
The president and dean of College Misericordia, Dallas, Pa., and the executive secretary of the alumnae association were guests of the Rochester Alumnae of the college at a dinner Oct. 28, at Treadway Inn.

Sister Mary Celestine, R.S.M., Ph.D., President, and Sister Marianna, R.S.M., Ph.D., Dean, spoke of the college's current building program, including a residence hall and a student union building. Mrs. Willard Carey spoke of the activities of the alumnae association in New York State.

College Misericordia, celebrating its 40th anniversary, is a liberal arts college for women operated by the Sisters of Mercy.

A temporary committee was appointed to plan for election of officers on Dec. 4. The committee consists of Mrs. Frank Bezek, 28 Harvard Circle, Rochester; Mrs. Frank Malley, 153 Oakridge Drive, Rochester; Mrs. William O'Dea, 26 Highview Drive, Rochester; Miss Elaine Guisano, 275 Sainte Circle, Rochester; and Mrs. Charles Lyons, 47 Hillcrest Drive, Penfield.

Hostesses for the Dec. 4 meeting will be Mrs. Walter Krasavaga, 288 Shoreliff Drive, Rochester, and Mrs. John Kizis, 225 Picturesque Drive, Rochester.

St. Stephen Club Elects
Geneva—Jack Davis is president of the St. Stephen's Club for 1963-64.

Election of officers was held at a combined business meeting and Halloween party Saturday night in the school hall.

Other officers elected are Henry Queer, vice president; Mrs. Oriando D'Agostino, treasurer; and Mrs. William Crowley, secretary.

An entertainment program was held later including dancing, games, and refreshments. Plans for the coming year will be formulated at a committee meeting in the school hall.

Golden Jubilee Celebration Set

ST. LUCY'S PARISH will mark its golden jubilee with a celebration Dec. 13 to 15. Shown from left are Mrs. Anthony D'Amico, invitations; Miss Mary Ranaletta and Angelo Bracci, co-chairman; Peter DiLaura, program, and the Rev. Ignatius St. George, pastor. (Al Piccoli photo)

HENRY B. GILLETTE
City Councilman, Northwest District

RAYMOND J. LILL
City Councilman, Northeast District

JOHN B. DUFFY
City Councilman, South District

RICHARD D. LEBEAUMONT
City Councilman, East District

LOUIS A. CERULLI, M.D.
Commissioner of Schools

JOHN F. BURKE
District Attorney

MARTIN S. HANDELMAN
County Court Judge

This is your vote and your voice.

LET YOUR VOICE BE HEARD FOR

ACTION . . . to prevent the construction of a coal-loader in the port of Rochester, contaminating air and water.

ACTION . . . Against a "grab" of your sales tax dollar by greedy Republican Supervisors.

ACTION . . . for more street improvements, more traffic lights.

ACTION . . . and an end to wasteful, spendthrift Republican county government.

ACTION . . . Against the politically-inspired "Weighted-Vote", which is rigged against YOU!

VOTE DEMOCRATIC
VOTE ROW 'B' ALL THE WAY

. . . and pull LEVER 16, top of machine

THOMAS J. FENLON
County Clerk

SAMUEL SCHWARTZ
Judge of the City Court

JOHN A. DAMICO
Judge of the Family Court

ROBERT E. O'BRIEN
Chairman

Rosary Charter Presented St. Patrick's, Cato

The Superior General Knight, Betty Knight, Ellen Knight, Margaret Knight, Marie Knight, Ann McKown, Frances Morganstein, Julia O'Neill, Mildred Pierce, Caroline Roberts, Kathleen Seaton, Janice Taber, Madeline Taber, Terrence Taber, Annabelle Thompson, Donald Thompson, Fred Thompson, John Skardisick, Evelyn Perrotta, Mary Smith, Mary Streeter, Dorothy Ray, Carolyn Moody, Ethyle Miney, Mary Elmer, Marjorie Douglas, Dorothy Deutschman, Winona Schmitt, Karen Schmitt, Anna Michaels, and Margaret Sweetman.

Last Thursday, Father Elmer W. Heindl formally created the Rosary Contraternity and installed the official picture in St. Patrick's Church at an impressive candlelight living Rosary said by the charter members.

The 47 women enrolled as charter members first benefited are given to the group by care for the Church, vestments and altar; teach the children in Religious Education Classes and conduct many parish spiritual and social activities. Agnes Kincaid, Cathytiles, Father Heindl explained.

$8.45 Picks Up, Cleans, Delivers Free

9x12 RUG

AUTOMATIC RUG CLEANING CO.

Ask About ServiceMASTER

BR-3 3290

Noted Artist in Talk Here

Maurice Lavanoux, secretary of the Liturgical Arts Society since its organization in 1928 and editor of its magazine since 1940, will speak at RIT and at St. Bernard's Seminary Wednesday, Nov. 13. The public is invited to attend the RIT talk at the school's Eastman Building, Broad St. and Plymouth Avenue South, at 3:15 p.m. His topic will be "Trends in Present Day Religious Art and Architecture." Lavanoux, internationally known artist and architect, studied in the United States, Canada and France; has traveled extensively around the world and lectured in scores of schools, academies and museums. Part of his time in Rochester will be spent visiting architecturally significant churches in this area.

Famed Mathematician Listed At Nazareth

One of America's leading theoretical mathematicians will lecture at Nazareth College Auditorium Thursday, Nov. 14, at 8 p.m. Marston Morse, one of a select group of ten Americans who have been elected to the Academie des Sciences of France, will discuss "Mathematics, the Arts and Freedom." The public is invited.

Dr. Morse is presently a member of the staff of the Institute for Advanced Study in Princeton, New Jersey. In addition to conducting research in higher mathematics, he has devoted considerable effort to uniting mathematics with the cultural arts.

PROFESSOR MORSE is renowned among mathematicians for his contributions to the knowledge of dynamical systems, the function theory and the calculus of variations in the large. Tolerating no barriers between the various branches of mathematics, such as algebra, geometry and calculus, he probes them all in order to give greater unity and depth to his researches.

Primarily a theoretician, Morse works in the field of abstractions, which he thinks "rules out the irrelevant and permits a greater generality." Mathematicians abstract in order to unify, simplify, comprehend and extend. The greater complexity of modern mathematics, and its vast scope make the process a necessity. These same intricate and imaginative

Courier Editor Reviews Vatican Council Book

"Pope, Council and World" is perhaps a last-of-its-kind book, very readable and very enlightening, declared the Rev. Henry Atwell last Tuesday in reviewing Robert B. Kaiser's book on the Vatican Council.

Three noticeable trends of the Council to date were singled out by Father Atwell:

1. The stress on the collegiality of the bishops—i.e. that all the successors of the Apostles have a responsibility for the worldwide leadership of the Church.
2. A willingness to work together with other Faiths in solving serious problems of our time.
3. Greater "sincerity" in the Church, reflected in such areas as more meaningful worship, and a less defensive attitude in discussing Catholic shortcomings.

Father Atwell, who met author Kaiser recently in Rome, characterized him as "extremely competent and well-informed." His review was the third in the current Noonday Book Review series being offered on alternate Tuesdays in the Catholic Evidence Library at 50 Chestnut Street.

The result is a journalist's account of the action of the Council, on the floor and behind the scenes. An admittedly accurate account, this book has been criticized for leaning too heavily on the "liberal" side. The Council voting, however, seems to indicate that this is the way the great majority of the Fathers are thinking," commented Father Atwell.

This fall, the press coverage is much more thorough, and the daily events of the Council sessions are in print only a few hours after they actually transpire in St. Peter's.

"Today, there really isn't a need for such a book as Kaiser's

McQuaid Frosh Score First Win

A 98-yard run from scrimmage by Tom Monks and two touchdowns passes by John Snyder carried McQuaid Jesuit High's freshman football team to its first win of the season Saturday in an 18-12 thriller over Cardinal Mooney.

The Knights, now 1-3-1, shook Monks loose after stopping a Mooney drive on their goal line. Mike Millner and Pete Harmon had the other touchdowns on pass and run plays from quarterback Snyder.