Cross Country Meet Set

The largest field ever—some 11 teams and 110 individual entries—will compete today in the third annual Diocesan Cross-Country Run at St. John Fisher College.

There will be three races, the freshman race at 11 a.m., followed immediately by the junior varsity competition with the varsity meet concluding the day's activities.

A three-school struggle figures for the varsity title among Defending Champion McQuaid Jesuit High School, Aquinas Institute and Padua High School of Watkins Glen.

McQuaid breezed to last year's Varsity Title and is heavily favored to repeat this year. The Knights' "A" team have participated in 5 invitational tournaments this season and have one first place, 2 seconds and a third to their credit. Senior Mike Connor, defending individual champion, may give up his crown to teammate Eric Kendrick, a sophomore speedster, who gave notice of his intentions early in the season with a 12:17 for a 2.3 mile run. Connor has been hampered this season with a pulled muscle.

FIVE SCHOOLS are entered in B-team competition, where Bishop Kearney High is a solid team favorite after zipping to the team championship against Aquinas and McQuaid. The Kings are undefeated in five dual and triangular meets. Outstanding for Kearney is Dick Brown who has come in first place in every meet in which his school has participated. His best time for 2-1/10 miles is 12:01.

Cardinal Mooney's big gun is Andy Borbas who took a first at Baldwinsville and a third at Alfred-Almond. Borbas was clocked at 13:12 for the 2.4 mile run. His team has competed in 3 meets and has taken one second, one third and one fourth.

Aquinas' B team has seen action six times and is credited with a tie against Madison, a first against Bishop Kearney, a fourth and a sixth. Dennis Bromka has been his team's best runner.

In the freshman division, McQuaid appears to be the favorite Quaid appears to be the favorite. The Little Knights have won two first places and a third in individual competition and walked off with th top prize in two triangular meets. They own victories over Aquinas, Mooney and Kearney.

School trophies will be awarded in each division. Individual prizes for first, second and third places will be awarded in each division.

The freshman run will be 1.5 miles while the B and Varsity meets will be 2.5 miles.

Awards will be made at 12:45. Rev. John F. Ware, C.S.B., of Aquinas, is chairman of the meet.

At St. Stanislaus Church

Famed Painting, Our Lady

A bond between Catholics behind the Iron Curtain and members of the Church in Rochester will be forged in three days of devotion at St. Stanislaus Church, Tuesday through Thursday, Nov. 3, 4 and 5.

A copy of the famed Icon of Our Lady of Czestochowa will be in the sanctuary of the church and triduum services will be held each evening at 7:30 p.m.

The picture, somewhat similar to the familiar Our Lady of Perpetual Help painting, is honored as the national Madonna of Poland.

The original painting is in the monastery shrine of Jasna Gora, spiritual capital of Poland's Catholics.

Legend says the painting was made by St. Luke the gospel writer. Scientists have dated it at least back to the fifth century.

Scars on Our Lady's face are the result of thieves who tried to seal it in 1430. The painting is ornamented with a silk robe and precious jewels. Crowns on Our Lord and Our Lady are the gifts of Pope St. Pius X in 1910.

An estimated two million pilgrims visit the Jasna Gora shrine each year, a symbol of the strong faith of the Polish people despite the Communist regime which has ruled their homeland since the Nazi-Soviet invasion of 1939.

TWO COPIES of the original painting have been made by Polish artist Leonard Torwit — one which is now taken from parish to parish in Poland, the other, at the suggestion of Cardinal Stefan Wyszynski, is on tour of American parish churches.

Pope John blessed the picture for its American tour Feb. 10, 1962. The Pope, on that occasion, recalled he once visited Jasna Gora and said Mass at the shrine. His private chapel at Castel Gandolfo was dedicated to Our Lady of Czestochowa.

Father Alexander Stec, pastor of St. Stanislaus Church, invites people of the Rochester area to visit the church to view the painting during its three day stay here. The picture has already been venerated in hundreds of U.S. churches since its arrival June 17, 1962.

Mrs. Reirdon Requiem Held

Requiem Mass was offered on Tuesday, Oct. 29 for Mrs. Elizabeth Kearney Reirdon at St. Ann's Home Chapel by the Rev. Leo Lynch, chaplain.

Mrs. Reirdon died at St. Ann's, where she was a guest, Friday, October 25, 1963. She was 87.

The widow of Henry Reirdon, Mrs. Reirdon was born in York, N.Y., and spent her early youth in Akron, N.Y. She moved to Rochester after her marriage in 1902.

SHE LEAVES several nieces and nephews, including Mrs. Maria Smelt, Mrs. Arthur McGrath and Mrs. T. Edward Harmon, all of Rochester.

Burial took place in the family plot in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery. Father Lynch officiated.
