Mission Head

The national secretary of the Catholic Students Mission, Monsignor Henry J. Klock, will open Mission Days at

MSGR. KLOCKER

Mercy when he addresses the student body, Friday, Nov. 8, at 1:30 p.m. in the auditorium.

Following Monsignor Klock's talk, the banquet doors will be opened to the symposium at 7:30 p.m. and 7:41 p.m. Friday, and again Saturday from 7:30 p.m. to 7:41 p.m. Proceeds will benefit over twenty-five home and foreign mission groups, according to Sister Mary Judith, CSMC, moderator at Mercy.

Both Friday and Saturday nights, Mercy's Mission Show, "The Boyfriend," will be presented at 7:30 p.m. in the auditorium. A matinee is scheduled for Sunday, Nov. 10, at 3 p.m. Tickets are $1.

On Oct. 31, to win spiritual blessings for the missionaries, they intend to aid materially. Mercians observed a Sacrifice Day. They assisted at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass offered by the school chaplain, Rev. P. David Finks, for missionaries' intentions.

Sacrificing speech, the student body conducted a "Whisper Day" with complete silence observed during the three lunch periods. Each homeroom was given a special missionary group for whom to pray, and students in the spirit of sacrifice donated a small item for the Mission Day grab bag booth.

Blue Ribbons

Blue ribbon top awards were won by two Mercy High publications Nov. 2 at the 20th Annual Scholastic Editors' School Newspaper Conference held at the Sheraton.

The "Quill" newspaper, was awarded a blue ribbon "superior" rating in the Catholic school division, and the "Mercedes" literary magazine, took the top rating for the third year in a row in the literary publications division.

Editors of the award-winning publications were Laurie Schapp and Barbara Downs, "Quill," and Denise Soebbing and Linda Wandke, "Mercedes."

The conference, sponsored by the Rochester Times-Union, Hartman, was chosen to play in the Junior All-State Music Association Festival held in Newark, New York, Nov. 1-2.

As a result of the All-State auditions held in Spencerport recently, three Mercy students have been chosen to play in the New York State School Music Association Festival Nov. 15 and 16, at Eastridge High School.

Those chosen were junior Kris Kramer, violin, and junior Audrey Manella, trumpet, and sophomore Jane Wennerstrom, flute.

Directing the All-State Orchestra will be Mr. Adelbert Purga, director of music at Wellsville High School.

The program will include the following selections: "Francis Militaire" by Saint-Saens; the main theme of "Exodus" by Gold and Muller; "Meisteringus" by Wagner and Herfurth; and highlights from "No Strings" by Rodgers and Muller.

Miss Mosta was chosen on the basis of her participation in the Genesee Valley Regional

Mercian Chosen
Mercy senior, Sandra Mosta, has been selected to be a representative of Monroe County youth at the Governor's Conference on Children and Youth to be held in Albany from Nov. 13-15.

As one of Monroe County's seven youth delegates to the conference, Miss Mosta will join area student representatives from Harley, Hilton, Marshall, Franklin, Madison and Monroe.

Miss Mosta was chosen on the basis of her participation in the Genesee Valley Regional ITALIAN WOMEN'S Civic Club will sponsor the Dante Scholarship Dinner Nov. 16 at the Manger Hotel ballroom. Dinner will be served at 7 p.m. followed by dancing to the music of Len Hawley and his orchestra.

Mrs. Lewis C. Diminico, left, is ticket chairman, and Mrs. Ross C. Petralia, social chairman.

Dante Dance To Benefit College Scholarships

The Italian Women's Civic Club will hold its annual Dante Scholarship Dinner Dance at the Manger Hotel on Saturday, Nov. 16, at 7 p.m., with music by Len Hawley and his orchestra.

Proceeds will be used for scholarships which the club maintains at the University of Rochester, St. John Fisher College and Nazareth College. The Dante Scholarship has been given since 1922 to any young man or woman of Italian descent attending any public or private high school.

Mrs. Ross Petralia is general chairman, Mrs. Lewis Diminico, ticket chairman; assisted by Miss Lucy Goodyear, Miss Madeleine Pezzulo, Miss Alma Pavia, Miss Antonette Dellefave, Mrs. Mae D'Amore, Mrs. Patsy Leccese, Mrs. John Perlich, Mrs. John Caira, Mrs. John Mangione, Mrs. Ralph Fargo, decorations; Miss Madeline Pezzulo, publicity; reception committee.

Mrs. Marcus Bonisignore, president, Miss Lucy Goodyear, Miss High School, another newcomer, took second place with 3 wins and 1 loss. The league will meet seven more times between now and February when trophies will be awarded. The next session will be held at R. L. Thomas High School in Webster on Nov. 16.

Parents' Dance
At the request of Brother Clark, principal, a group of parents met at Bishop Kearney High School recently to form tentative plans for a "Get-Acquainted" social.

Selected to pilot the arrangements as chairmen were Messrs. Arthur J. Boss (tickets), Nick Marshall (entertainment), Homer Starks (refreshments), Charles Smith (decorations) and Joseph P. Walla (publicity).

Saturday, Nov. 23 was set as the date for the dance to be held in the school gymnasium from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m.

Carl Dengler and his orchestra has been booked for the event, accompanied by two vocalists.

Refreshments will be served.

Admission is limited to parents of students and distribution of tickets will be made through the student body.

Meet Teachers
The administration and faculty of St. Agnes High School extend an invitation to the parents of the junior class to attend the Junior Parents' Night to meet their daughters' teachers in the respective classrooms Wednesday and Thursday evenings, Nov. 13 and 14, beginning at 6:45 p.m.

Sister Marie Margaret, principal of St. Agnes, will meet the parents in the auditorium at 8 p.m.

For convenience, it is requested that parents whose last names begin with the letters A-L come Wednesday evening; M-Z, Thursday evening.

Business Seminar
Sister Theresa Daniel, chairman of the business department, and Sister Marie Mathews, guidance coordinator, will represent St. Agnes High School at the business education seminar to be conducted by IBM at the R. L. Thomas High School in Webster, Nov. 12, 13 and 14.

Demonstrations scheduled include such topics as data processing and key punch theory, a new system in shorthand and machine transcription, and an IBM multiple-listening station classroom.

Solange Hertz Spiritual Book To Be Reviewed

"SEARCHER OF MAJESTY," a new spiritual book by Solange Hertz, will be reviewed by Mrs. Frank Shaughtnessy Jr. in next Tuesday's Noonday Book Review at the Catholic Evidence Library.

THE HALF-HOUR review will begin at 12:30 p.m. on Nov. 12 in the library located at 80 Chestnut St.

Newest feminine light on the Catholic literary horizon, Mrs. Hertz has two previous successes to her credit, "Women, Words and Wisdom," and "Come Down, Zacharias." She is being compared to Caryl Chessman for her ability to clothe the basic spiritual truths in appealing modern garb.

The reviewer, Mrs. Shaughtnessy, is the mother of four small children and a member of Good Shepherd parish. Before her marriage she was a teacher at St. Andrew's School.

Her review is the fourth in the current series, being sponsored at the library by the Monroe County Council of Catholic Women.
