Philip Kreckel, Noted Composer Requiem Offered By Priest-Son

Solemn Funeral Mass for Philip G. Kreckel, for 55 years organist and choirmaster at St. Boniface Church and nationally known composer of sacred music, was offered in that church, Tuesday, Nov. 12. His priest-son, the Rev. Robert G. Kreckel celebrated the Solemn Requiem Mass.

MR. KRECKEL, 77 of 49 Washburn Parw, died Nov. 9, 1963.

Final blessing in the church was given by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. John E. Maney, V.G., P.A., and Chancellor of the diocese. Monsignor Maney cited the many contributions of Mr. Kreckel to the diocese and extended Bishop Kearney's sympathy to the family. The Bishop was unable to attend, he said.

Assisting Father Kreckel, as assistant pastor of Immaculate Conception Church in the Mass were the Rev. Francis J. Taylor, deacon and the Rev. E. Charles Bauer, subdeacon.

Also in attendance were the Right Reverend Monsignors Robert A. Kelleher, George W. Eck, George J. Schmit, Gerald C. Lambert, John M. Duffy, Thomas F. Connor, Arthur E. Reagan; Richard K. Burns and Very Rev. Msgr. George A. Cocuzzi.

The choir was under the direction of Rev. Benedict Ehmann. A delegation of the Organists' Guild included J. Francis Imo, Norman A. DeCaro Charles P. Wolfe, Edwin B. Kinsky and Richard Brickler.

Mr. Kreckel who was born in Rochester had written 12 Masses, published seven volumes of organ music and wrote review for a music publisher. In October of this year his newest work, "Documentary on the Pipe Organ" written and compiled for Nazareth College music department was announced.

He was a graduate of the Royal Conservatory of Music at Munich and studied organ plainchant at the Schola Cantorum in Paris and the Church Music School at Regensburg.

Mr. Kreckel was on the executive board of the St. Gregory Society, a national Catholic organists group and was a member of Rochester Chapter American Guild of Organists. He served on Rochester Catholic Diocese commissions on church music and organ.

IN HIS YEARS at St. Boniface, he estimated that he had played more than 400 compositions, many of them his own. He was an avid and knowledgable baseball fan.

Mr. Kreckel was a member of the Daily Mass League, St. Boniface Men's Club, First Friday Luncheon Club, and the Catholic Interracial Council.

Surviving are his wife, Mary, the Ruby Kreckel; another son, Patrick F. Kreckel; one sister, Theresa Kreckel; a brother, Frank Kreckel; five grandchildren; nieces and nephews.

Also in attendance at the Mass were the Reverend Fathers Ignatius St. George, Gerald J. Appelby, John V. Bosse, Michael L. Reagan, George M. Koch, Eugene F. McFarland, Joseph L. Hogan, Raymond J. Wahl, Robert C. McNamara, Charles A. Bennett, Joseph Aubin, Robert M. Egan, Bernard V. Kuehnan, Raymond H. Booth, Walter E. Fleming, Robert A. Meng, Joseph W. Dailey, John A. Reddington, James P. Rome — The other morning, before the daily Mass for the Council began, I met a bishop whom I did not immediately recognize. For he was dressed in purple, and the last time I had seen him in the "bush," he had been dressed in torn khaki—the only practical outfit for his primitive mission diocese.

This bishop, and hundreds of others, remind the rest of us what bishops are for, namely, the service of the people. In the missions they are not administrators—there is hardly anything to administrate; they are shepherds with their sheep, servants with their masters—the poor. The same is true of many bishops here from persecuted countries. They seem to be girded with a towel, as was Our Lord the night of the Last Supper when He washed the feet of His Apostles. In other words, they are what are called in Greek, Doulos—slaves of the faithful and of all mankind. It is in this spirit that the Holy Father calls himself: "the servant of the servants of God."

It is the Will of God that we are beggars in the United States for these brother bishops, who are not judges but servants of the people. If you could come to the Council and meet these hundreds of men who, in poverty, minister to the poor, how you too would yearn to be their servants! They truly live the words St. Augustine so often repeated to his people! "I am a bishop for you, I am a Christian with you."

I intercede for these poor bishops of the world, who have to trust more in God because they lack coins to remind them, "In God We Trust." Absent from you in body, I am nevertheless present among you in spirit, begging a remembrance in sacrifice and prayers for these holy men who keep before our eyes the ideal of service rooted in Our Lord, whom St. Peter called "the Bishop of our souls." It is going to be a different world after this Council. You can help bring it into being by helping those who are most like Christ in His poverty, His Crucifixion and His emptying of glory to stand among men as those who "minister and are not ministered unto." In your will, in your daily self-denial, in your bearing witness to Our Lord in your office and work, make yourself saintly by serving first the saintly.

GOD LOVE YOU to E.G. and A.C. for $5 "We are 'strolling troubadors.' We offer our first tip for the Missions. You'll be hearing from us soon again,"... to Mrs. S.F.L. for $16 "I offered my daughter, a mother of six, this money. She asked me to send it to the Missions instead. I feel so proud to think she thinks of others first,"... to K.C. for $25 "I have been hungry but have been able to buy food. This is for those who do not have the money to buy food."

We are not only asking for your sacrifices, but for your prayers. Send your request and an offering of $2 for the WORLDMISSION ROSARY, and we will send you these multi-colored beads blessed by Bishop Sheen. Each time you say the WORLDMISSION ROSARY remember to put aside a daily sacrifice for the Holy Father.

Cut out this column, pin your sacrifice to it and mail it to Most Rev. Fulton J. Sheen, National Director of The Society for the Propagation of the Faith, 366 Fifth Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10001, or Your Diocesan Director, Rev. John F. Duffy, 50 Chestnut Street, Rochester 4, New York.

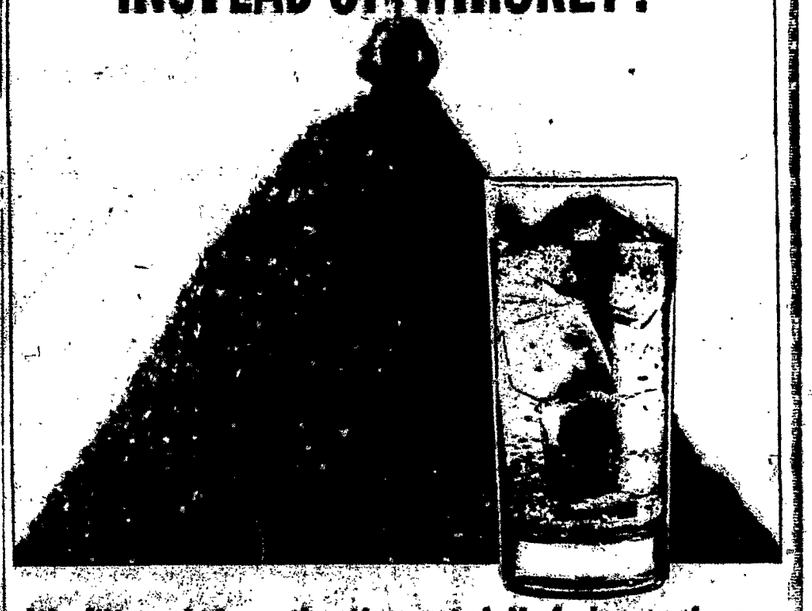
This bread may very well make the best toast you ever tasted...

Monks' Bread has a flavor you can't toast away. It has a goodness you don't find in most bread. It's a bread that wasn't meant to be sold. It began as simple sustenance for the monks at the Abbey of the Genesee—men who eat no meat, no fowl. All the good things the monks baked into their full-flavored loaf naturally toast up better.

Try Monks' Bread tomorrow, toasted.

WHY SMIRNOFF INSTEAD OF WHISKEY?



It's filtered through a "mountain" of charcoal

If you don't care for the taste of whiskey (and many people don't) try Smirnoff for delicious liquor drinks that don't taste like liquor. Smirnoff is filtered through 7 tons of activated charcoal. This "black magic" removes most of the congeners, leaves Smirnoff crystal clear and flawless with no noticeable liquor taste or odor. Discover how perfectly it blends with your favorite fruit juice or soft drink.
