Dance for Dads

The Juniors and Seniors of St. Agnes High School are looking forward to the annual dinner dance sponsored by the Student Council, where their "special date" for the evening will be the fathers of the classes of '64 and '65.

This year's theme for the traditional father-daughter dinner dance is "Step Out With Dad." After a turkey dinner served at 6:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria by Grinnam Caterers, Sister Marie Margaret, principal, and Father Cushing, chaplain, will extend a welcome to fathers and daughters.

Dancing will take place from 8 to 10 p.m. in the school gymnasium, with music provided by Father Cushing.

Decorations in keeping with the theme are under the direction of Christine Farone, Secretary of the Student Council. A special attraction for the evening will include parodies of old-time songs written for and especially for "dads."

Doctors Say Hormones Make Skin Look Younger Safely

NEW YORK (Special)—A leading dermatologist and his assistants have conducted a "make-up" test that proves conclusively that estrogenic hormones make skin look younger, smoother, and free of wrinkles, often fade "old-age" skin discolorations.

A preparation combining female hormones was applied to one side of the face and neck and to the hand of 50 middle-aged women. A similar formula containing no hormones was used on the other side. It was quickly apparent that the side treated with hormones looked better at the end of the test in all but two cases, skin lines were definitely less noticeable, complexion was softer, smoother, freer. There was no local irritation in any case; examinations revealed absolutely no systemic effects. The hormones had beautified effectively and safely.

In an effort to speed up hormones' beautifying action, a trustworthy 20-year-old laboratory developed a fluid formula called HORMONEX Beauty Serum. This laboratory conducted a test on 15,000 women volunteers who were asked to use the formula for two weeks—days on one side of the face and neck. An impressive percentage signalled that good results were attained, even in this short period.

HORMONEX Beauty Serum acts so rapidly because pure female hormones are dissolved in a combination of penetrating Sesame Oil and a patented, Yes, chuckles Bernie Weber, Program Committee Chairman of St. Agnes High School Fathers' Club.

"Our next meeting, Thursday, Nov. 21, will be another 'first' on our calendar. Fathers, bring your sons; or if you don't have a son, adopt one for the evening and bring him along."

Early announcements list the following program for this special evening: 6:30 p.m., a smorgasbord served by Grinnam Caterers in the school cafeteria; 7:30 p.m., a short business meeting (Turkey Festival reports); 8 p.m., a movie, "Pro Football's Longest Day."

Reservations may be made with the Rev. Walter F. Cushing, chaplain and moderator of the Fathers' Club.

Secretary Clubs

The Future Secretaries and Junior Future Secretaries Club of Nazareth Academy will meet in the auditorium Tuesday, Nov. 21, from 9:15 to 10 a.m. to hear Mrs. Rita Wander explain what business wants of them today.

Mrs. Wander, from Extra Help, Inc. interviews and hires women for firms requesting this service for their offices.

Sharon Grove, president of the Future Secretaries Club, will introduce the speaker.

Awarded Latin Trophy

Sister Marie Margaret, principal of St. Agnes High School, proudly accepted a trophy for excellence in Latin awarded the school last week by the Association for the Promotion of the Study of Latin in recognition of performance displayed in an examination administered last March 12.

All Latin students wrote the examination: 98% attained grades above the national median. Ninety-seven students received certificates of merit for scores between 90 and 115. The highest possible score was 120. Four students received silver medal pins in recognition of achievement of scores between 115 and 120: Joanne Hicks, now attending Nazareth College; Eleanor Colantoni, Mary Jane Keating, and Nancy Helget of the present junior class.

Film Festival Hears Prelate

Venice — (NC) — A call to Catholics to penetrate the film industry to produce better movies was sounded by Giovanni Cardinal Urbani, Patriarch of Venice, at a reception held in connection with the Venice Film Festival.

Cardinal Urbani, following the example of his predecessor as Patriarch, the late Pope John, invited dignitaries and film industry leaders who were here for the festival to visit his residence. During the visit he spoke on the problems of today's movies.

THE CARDINAL said that there are many motion pictures today which deal with the "most shameful human passions." Although he acknowledged that many good films are being produced, he also said that a "painful reality" is always more apparent. That reality, he said, is the "inequality of the movie industry to liberate itself from certain themes of exasperated sexuality and from certain problems of congenital perversion."

To combat this situation, Cardinal Urbani said, the Church is continuing its program of using good ones, condemning bad ones and in general backing efforts aimed at educating the taste and judgment of moviegoers.
