Annual Debate Tourney Hosted By St. Andrew's

St. Andrew's Seminary High School Forensic Society will sponsor its Fourth Annual Debate Tournament this Friday and Saturday, Nov. 22 and 23. The Very Rev. Msgr. Richard M. Queen, rector, will deliver the opening address to an assembly of the state's top student debators on Friday at 6:15 p.m. in the seminary auditorium at 1150 Buffalo Rd.

TOURNAMENT Chairmen James Hall and Terry Rickard have put many long, tedious hours into the preparation of this tournament, and with the assistance of a well prepared and highly skilled staff, will run the tournament smoothly and efficiently.

In what should prove to be the best tournament St. Andrew's has hosted thus far, the Seminary is scheduled to be filled to capacity with every available room in use.

This event, spanning two days of activity, will focus around four power matched (i.e. winners vs. winners) rounds. Debates on Friday night will begin promptly at 6:30, and on Saturday morning at 9:30. The public is invited.

Canisius High School of Buffalo, the winner of last year's tournament, will return this year to defend its title and to Students' Activities Council Rotating Trophy.

Teams from the area schools of Aquinas Institute, McQuaid Jesuit, and Victor Central High School, as well as twelve other high schools from Buffalo, Syracuse, Jamestown, and Utica, will participate.
