Play Rescheduled at College

DRAMA CLUB of Nazareth and St. John Fisher Colleges has rescheduled Checkhov's "The Cherry Orchard" for 8:15 p.m. Dec. 3, 4 and 5 at Nazareth's auditorium. Director Joseph Baranowski announces that the final curtain will be at 10:30 p.m. Photo shows John Everett and Stacey Welland in a scene from the play.

Take Her She's Mine Set For Aquinas Stage

The St. Genesius Club of Aquinas Institute has prepared the hit comedy show, Take Her, She's Mine for presentation at Aquinas Auditorium on Saturday, Dec. 7 and Sunday, Dec. 8. The St Genesius Club has been singularly fortunate to obtain performance rights for this Broadway comedy hit since it has only this September been released for amateur production.

The play deals lightly and humorously with a modern domestic problem — that of the eldest daughter going away to college. The action of the play moves swiftly from Los Angeles to New England and the amusing incidents lead us through various aspects of today's college life and its consequent effects on the parents of the students.

Leading parts in this major club are played by Mike Denninger, Johnt Foos, Marilyn Casaceli and Janice Corletta. Supporting roles are played by Margi Guada, Tony Rossi, Pat Kelly, Don Rogers, Susan Masciello, Jean Arioli, Alan Archibald and Dennis Russell. Also appearing in the cast are Bill Evans, Ed Heidt, Bob Fuhrman and Jim Murphy.

The St. Genesius Club's technical staff has prepared the multi-scened set, one of the most involved of recent productions. The play is scheduled for an eight o'clock curtain on both evenings.

Theatre Guide

(Catholics are reminded of a recent Legion of Decency advisory to avoid "not listed" films. Such films are usually the products of firms which fail to submit their films for Legion of Decency reviews. All major U.S. producers do cooperate with the Legion so it is a mark of loyalty to them as well as to one's pledge to see only those films rated acceptable by the Legion of Decency. Such action would also be an effective remedy for much of the current turmoil in the Rochester area about how best to curtail objectionable shows at drive-in theaters. — Editor's Note.)

Largest Muskellunge Landed By Woman

Mrs. Betty Hartman of Ogdensburg led the muskellunge entries in the October segment of the Louis A. Wehle Fishing Contest with a 64 lb. 4 oz. "tiger" out of the St. Lawrence River. Contest officials said it was the largest muskie entered by a woman in the 18 years of the competition.

Betty, wife of well-known Len Hartman, has been a consistent winner in the muskie division for the past five years.

AREA WINNERS in the contest included:

LAKE TROUT: William J. Rohel, 410 S. Geneva St., Ithaca and Walter B. Eberwein, 2441 Oakview Dr., Rochester. PERCH: Roy S. Japp, RD 1, Geneva; Robert Hargrave, 475 Oxford St., Rochester, and Charles Knapp, 757 Linden Pl., Elmira. PICKEREL: Henry VanDongen, 751 W. Lake Rd., Canandaigua, and Danny Ulmer Mark St., Naples. SMALL-MOUTH BASS: Wilbur Rollins 377 Kartes, Rochester. WALL-EYE PIKE: Clarence R. Lehr, 50 Frank St., Fairport.

Site Purchased

Lafayette, La.—(NC)—To alleviate jam-packed conditions in Catholic schools here, Lafayette's Bishop Maurice Schexnayder has completed purchase of a 20-acre tract on the city's outskirts for "building a co-institutional central high school at an undeterminted future date."

Five Catholic high schools—three parochial, one private and one diocesan—now are filled to capacity and need additional classroom space.

Disc Notes

From Paul Contestable

Rochester's own Sylvia Dee has turned her talents to writing lyrics for her first children's album that is sure to be a hit with the small fry, just as her previous songs have been a hit with the older set during the past several years.

Daughter of Elizabeth de Sylva, Women's Editor of the Democrat and Chronicle, Sylvia Dee lived in Rochester before having her first hit song under her belt. With more than 200 albums to date, she numbers among her many hits such tunes as Chicery Chick (her first), Too Young (the Number 1 song of 1951) and My Sugar Is So Refined.

This year she has written The End of the World, which also climbed to Number 1; and Please Don't Talk to the Life Guard; which spent several weeks on the top tunes list. She also had a Broadway show, Barefoot Boy With Cheek, and wrote a song for an Elvis Presley film, Moonlight Swim.

Her first children's record is called Songs of Animal Land on the Simon Says label of Cosmo Records. With music by Guy Woods, Sylvia Dee has written some fine new children's songs including I'm a Porcupine, Half a Giraffe, and The Smiling Crocodile. Vocals are done by the Zoo Keepers.

Imaginative and pleasing throughout, this record will surely please the youngsters and provide hours of fascinating listening. With all the hats she has written, Sylvia Dee is particularly excited about this first children's record. "I'm so thrilled about this album," she says, "because writing for children is such fun." And we might add that a very large part of that fun will be shared by the many children who will hear this record and be thoroughly entertained.

While on the subject of children's records, here are two others that would make excellent gifts for any child:

Outdoor Songs For Indoor Days with Big Jon Arthur and the "No School Today" cast. Sure to be a favorite with the small-fry, this album contains such favorites as Teddy Bear's Picnic, Barnacle Bill the Sailor, the Little Red Fox (Vocalion) I'm Popeye the Sailor Man and

Children's Corner—24 songs for children written by Frank Luther. Included are A Little Pink Pig, There Was an Old Owl, Seven Birds Up in a Tree Three Jolly Huntsmen. Short memorize. (Vocalion)

Gifts to Knit and Crochet

By LOUISE WILSON

Christmas comes but once a year but knitting and crocheting knows no season. So smart girls with an eye to their gift budget will get their hands on a pair of needles or crochet hook and work their way towards a collection of gifts for every member of the family and a few choice friends, too

With teenagers in mind, designers of goodies to knit and crochet have created a whole stocking-full of clever and rapid-to-make treasures. Typical is the gay curler case pictured. It is large enough to hold all the big rollers that go towards creating the favored hairdos of the younger set. (Instructions are free)

No girl ever has enough sweaters in her wardrobe. So for any girl on your gift-giving list this Christmas—we suggest your knitting a thick and thin bulky yarn into a cable-stitch turtle neck sweater. It's sure to go on the minute it comes out of its Christmas wrapping

Every man in her life, be he brother, beau or dad, will appreciate a personalized, knit-by-you Christmas gift. A smart pullover knit in a knitting worsted, in a knit and purl pattern design will be wonderfully wel

And for baby whose first Christmas is just around the corner may we suggest a charming sacque and cap? Using a baby yarn that is knit in a striped effect, using a pattern stitch, this delicate ensemble is appropriate for either girl or boy baby for Christmas day.

And when one Christmas gift is intended for the entire family, try an afghan. Suitable in colorful accenting for den or playroom consider knitting one in a checkerboard-motif achieved by knitting in individual strips using a combination of three favorite colors. Knit a strip at a time and it's quickly completed

Yarn of all weights is available in a tremendous variety of colors. So those who dip into the Christmas boutique for Christmas gift knitting and crocheting will be able to choose their hues to fit any present and its recipient. But get your instructions at once. Christmas is less than a month away!

Free instructions are available by writing to the National Hand Knitting Yarn Association, 15 East 26th St., NYC Room 1806 X and enclosing a self addressed, stamped envelope for:
