Mary Lou Fiser, Lucy Fantigrossi and Jane Jensen reflect the joy of Saint Agnes High School these past two weeks when students collected toys to be sent to the children in Selma, Alabama for Christmas.

Students Donate Toys To Aid Selma Mission

This year Santa will have to make an additional stop on his southward route in getting ready for "the long-anticipated day." The students of St. Agnes High School have generously donated many gifts to lead his Christmas sleigh and gladden the hearts of many youngsters.

Representative of these gifts are such favorites as stuffed elephants, bears and dogs, dolls, wind-up toys, board games, puzzles, jump ropes, trucks, bells, miniature cowboys, and Indians, and even the Flintstones—a wide variety for all interests and age levels.

These toys will be sent to Selma, Alabama, and distributed to the children of St. Elizabeth's School and Hospital, both of which are conducted by the Sisters of St. Joseph.

The project was sponsored by the Mission Council with Jane Jensen as chairman. The drive was conducted through the homeroom mission representatives—Seniors: Charlotte DeWind, Violet Regina, Loretta Rotundo, Elizabeth Owen, Rose Marie Caterino, Carolyn Allen, Kathleen Osburn, Patricia Davis, Ellen Kennedy; Juniors: Mary Jo Mauro, Maureen O'Neill, Margaret Lovick, Judith Deisinger, Donna Hunt, Karen Lally, Marsha Maselli, Kathleen Gallagher, Kathleen Marnell; Sophomores: Lina Curtin, Gertrude Hinchcliffe, Linda Stutsman, Patricia Lambert, Claire Owen, Marilyn Echter, Linda Gallagher, Kathleen Kinsella, Jo Ann Windheim, Margaret Zicari; Freshmen: Jo Ann Conlon, Ellen Lambert, Linda Glonti, Barbara Schaeffer, Judith DeNero, Judith Kolb, Anne Marie Scibilia, Joanne Weinmann, Maureen O'Hara, Barbara Zasowski, Sydney Slocum, Rosalee Tizio.

The Mission Council is headed by Lucy Fantigrossi, president; Mary Ann Nally, vice-president; Mary Lou Fisher, treasurer; Sharon Leonard, secretary. Sister Ann Xavier is club moderator.

Michelle Kirby and Mary Egan anticipate the festivities of this Sunday afternoon when they will be hostesses to their mothers at a tea at Saint Agnes High School. The setting will be that of the Civil War Era.

Ovid Area CDA Court Notes 40th Anniversary

Ovid — Fortieth anniversary banquet of Court St. Elizabeth No. 835, Catholic Daughters of America opened with invocation by the court chaplain, Rev. Francis W. Harding at Romulus Hotel Tuesday evening, Nov. 19. Grand Regent, Mrs. William Clair welcomed members and guests and expressed thanks to the cochairmen, Mrs. Earl Ward and Mrs. Charles Lovejoy; ticket chairmen, Mrs. Matthew Robinson, Mrs. George Lewin and Mrs. Henry Bromka for their efforts in preparation for the banquet.

Mrs. Earl Ward is toastmistress gave a brief history of the Court, organized in 1923 by the good work of Mrs. Ida French and Miss Anna Earley, and the assistance of Court Annunciation of Geneva. She presented, Mrs. Edmund Linehan, District Deputy, CD of A, from Geneva who congratulated the Court on the good turn out for the banquet and stressed the importance of all members attending the monthly meetings and giving their cooperation to all the activities of the Court.

Mrs. Earl Ward read a message of congratulations on the 40th anniversary of Court St. Elizabeth from Rev. Thomas Florack, Catholic chaplain at the Willard State Hospital. FATHER HARDING spoke briefly and sang an Irish melody retained by Townsend only he heard on his trip to Ireland. At special request as of their principle consumer, he sang "Take You Home Again, Kathleen" and temporary styling, functional and economic requirements.

Acting as master of ceremonies for the Ancient Order of Hibernians of Auburn, Jess McKeon recalled that Father Harding, as an assistant priest at Holy Family in Auburn, interested many of the group in singing.

Mr. McKeon introduced Miss Loretta Donohue as emcee for the evening by the ladies of the Hibernians on "The Gay Nineties" and "The Roaring Twenties" with Miss Annabel Maywalt at the piano.

A special melody of songs by Joe and Bill Shaw, Pat Clancy's rendition of "Come, Look Me Over," Trudy McKeon's "San Francisco" and "Sullivan" by Joe McConnell were among the many numbers greatly enjoyed by all present. A special vote of thanks was given to Bill Shaw for getting the group together and to all the Hibernians for the entertainment. Special thanks to Mrs. Shepherd for all her efforts in the preparation and serving of the turkey dinner were expressed.

To Redesign Product

Stanley J. Klein Associates, engineering and management consultants of Rochester, have been retained by Townsend Products Inc. to re-design one of their principle consumer product lines in terms of cost and temporary styling, functional and economic requirements.

Mrs. Annette Dunant (right) reads congratulatory telegram to winners in the T. J. Country Store Queen contest, held at Sibley's. At left is Barbara Goscшке, a student at Bishop Kearney High School, winner of the local contest, and also winner of the regional contest, who will go to St. Louis on Dec. 12 for the national finals.

Bishop Kearney Student Wins Queen Contest

Miss Barbara Goscшке, 15½, of 47 Glenmont Drive is the regional winner in the T. J. Country Store "Queen" contest, a teenage competition which was sponsored locally by Sibley's in Rochester. She is a student at Bishop Kearney High School.
