GOD LOVE YOU!

By MOST REV. FULTON J. SHEEN

Do you sleep well? Or do you worry about other people's diseases, their hunger, their poverty? Does your conscience ever disturb you about not sharing with the poor of the world? Put together the following contrasting facts and you will be bothered.

The average American family throws away 750 tin cans a year, while many houses in Latin American slums are made of tin cans. Within 40 years (up to 1914), the United States used 40 per cent of the natural resources of the earth, which is more than the rest of the world used during 6,000 years. Each day the average American uses ten times more of the earth's natural resources (not including food) than the rest of the world. . . . The average American eats 4.65 pounds of food a day; the average Indian eats 1.2 pounds a day (an 18th century staple). Americans throw enough food into their garbage pails each year to feed 600 million Chinese for three days a week. . . . The average funeral of an adult in the United States costs $1,450. Ten thousand people in the world die daily of starvation.

Many consciences are becoming stirred in the United States. One woman was sent a prospectus of a new dormitory building on a college campus and was asked to contribute $50,000. The marble floors, the elaborately decorated bathrooms, the kitchenettes on each floor made her consider whether she was contributing to the excessive display of wealth of those who should be signed with Christ's Cross. She wrote to us quoting Nietzsche. It was he who said: "God is dead." But maybe he said it because we act as if God is dead. For Nietzsche's relief: "How can you convince me of a Redeemer, if you do not act like one redeemed?"

This is the challenge thrown upon the Church in the United States: Christ does not want you to fulfill your desires before satisfying the necessities of others. Make your soul consider these facts, and then give to the Holy Father who aids all—all societies, all places, all areas. He does not invest your money so that missionaries may live on interest. He, who knows best where it is needed, gives it away immediately to the poor. This kind of sensible, unhoarded charity is yours through The Society for the Propagation of the Faith. May the Lord bless you for sharing with the poor.

GOD LOVE YOU to Mrs. T.V.E. for $20 "My sister-in-law and I decided not to exchange Christmas gifts among the family this year, so I'm sending the money for Our Lord's Poor." . . . to A.M.P. for $10 "I received an increase in salary recently. Now I would like to contribute a raise in salary to the Missions." . . . to Mr. and Mrs. D.C.F. for $5 "We promised this for the successful Canadian goose-hunting trip we had!"

Find out how an annuity with The Society for the Propagation of the Faith helps both you and the poor of the world. Send your requests for our pamphlet on annuities, including the date of your birth, to Most Rev. Fulton J. Sheen, 366 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York 10001.

Cut out this column, pin your sacrifice to it and mail it to Most Rev. Fulton J. Sheen, National Director of The Society for the Propagation of the Faith, 366 Fifth Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10001, or your Diocesan Director, Rev. John F. Duffy, 50 Chestnut Street, Rochester, N.Y. 14604.

N.D. Crusaders Win 2 Opening Cage Season

Notre Dame High of Elmira got off to a winning start for its '63-'64 basketball season as it defeated its first two opponents. Corning East was the first to be put down by the N.D. Five by a margin of 59-52.

Ron Limoncelli led the Crusaders scoring 22 points for his fast play. Mike Malone's rebounding, supported by Don Kent, played a major role in N.D.'s fast-break attack.

Coming Squires Join In Radio Rosary

Corning — The Corning Columbus Squires Sunday evening joined with Bishop Kearney in observing the Feast of the Immaculate Conception patron of the Roman Catholic Church in the United States.

During their regular meeting in the K. of C. Home, the local unit accompanied the Bishop in the recitation of the Rosary. The Bishop's voice was carried throughout the Rochester Diocese by area radio stations.

The Rev. William Thomas, spiritual advisor for the unit, gave a brief talk on the significance of the special day in honor of the country's patron.

PROGRAM CHAIRMAN for the Squires during December will be Chairman Gordon Morosio, assisted by Paul Young, Richard Barker and Richard Anastasia.

A tour of the facilities at the Chemung County Airport and of a Viscount airliner has been arranged for the Squires at 1:30 p.m. Saturday. The tour will be followed by recreational activities in St. Mary's School gymnasium. The next regular business meeting will be at 7:30 p.m. Dec. 22 in the K. of C. Home.
