Elected Officers

Sister M. Evelyn, S.S.T., chairman of the Executive Committee of the St. John's High School, was nominated and elected to the office of president of the new organization. The Rochester Area English Teachers Association, at the regular meeting held last week Wednesday, Dec. 11 at Our Lady of Mercy High School.

Other officers are: Sister Marie Dele, of Miner's Dele, High School; President, Leonard E. O'Connell, of The Holy Cross School.

Schedule Tea

The Homecoming classes of St. Agnes High School have invited their mothers and all the members of the faculty to come to tea Monday, Dec. 16 from 2:30 to 3:30 p.m. in their home economics department classroom—a base for which they have been planning and preparing these past three weeks.

Using as their theme for this Christmas festivity "Deck the Halls with boughs of holly," the Homecoming classes under the leadership of Monica Bellanca have planned the decorations which will center about a crib scene and traditional Christmas tree and as surprise centerpiece for the tea table, Mary Kathleen Kelly and the members of her Parents Committee, also of the Homecoming classes, have prepared a special present for each member.

Members of the Homecoming class and Homecoming classes are taking new and traditional Christmas cookies for the occasion. Delicious aromas daily sweep from their kitchens and tantalize any student within the area.

Ellen Tackett, has been named chairman of the Tea Service Committee; Michelle Kirby, Food Replacement; Judy Gray, Beverage Replacement; Mary Jean Cristofalo, Plate Replacement; Camille Perrotto, Food Preparation; Kelly Hayes, Arrangement; Christine Grant, Room Arrangement; and Karen Boehle, Invitations.

'Gift of Tenyin'

The glowing Nativity star will cast its light on Mercy's stage when the Christmas play, "The Gift of Tenyin," a Japanese story, is presented. The play will be staged Friday morning, December 20, at 10 a.m. for the student body and the same evening at 8:15 p.m. as a Christmas present to the parents and friends of Mercy. Sister Mary Plus is directing the play.

Playing the leading role as Tenyin, the youngest and self-willed daughter of the emperor, will be junior Mary Franklin. Her other daughters who are usually jolly and flutery will be portrayed by Ellen Donahue as Mursaki, Claudia Stewart as Tichibana, Gerri Vogt as Ashidori, Ellen McGee as Saganaki, and Pam Sant as Hariko-Ningyo.

The self-satisfied emperor who shuns his unusual Tenyin will be enacted by Jim Connor, Fisher student. Hatake, who acts both as the stage manager and the king's advisor, will be played by Mike Jeary of McQuaid.

The highlight of the play will be the Nativity scene with Tichibana as the Blessed Virgin and the remainder of the cast as the other characters in the crib scene. A graceful "buttefly dance," which is performed by Hariko-Ningyo in the opening scene, will be taught to Pam Sant by Sister Mary Edith, a Sister from India, studying at McQuaid College of the Sisters of Mercy.

The Gleec Club, under Sister Mary Barbara's direction, will entertain before curtain time with Christmas carols.

Music Program

Three Nazareth Academy music organizations will present a program in the school auditorium Friday evening, Dec. 20. The Nazareth Choir will sing "For Unto Us a Child is Born," "Come Unto Him," with Paula Petraceca as soprano soloist, and "Hallelujah Chorus," from Handel's "Messiah." They will also sing various arrangements of "Twelve Nights Before Christmas."

Choral Belles, a special group of Perosians will sing "Why This Tzumi Among the Nations?" Pa 2, arranged by Gellene; "Winter's Silent Night," written by "Winter World" and "Christmas Song."

Introduction to the choral program will be a candlelight procession with music from the "Messiah" played by Jo Ann Weiss at the organ.

Dr. David Fester will be guest conductor and Jo Ann Weiss will accompany.

The orchestra will present "Christmas Carol Fantasy," "Winter Wonderland," and "Holiday Tune." Mr. Alfred Castle will conduct.

The Nazareth Academy Gleec Club will present a Christmas program Tuesday, Dec. 17, at 1:40 p.m. Helen Conway, a member of the Prostan Choir, will conduct the group. Margaret Mary Grant will be accompanist.

The program will open with a greeting by Sally Yavata, Shaaron Jacobs, and Catherine Heister. The program follows:

The Cherry Tree Carol
 Kentucky Mountain Song
 Catherine Heister
 Maria Chorus
 Carol of the Wind
 Elizabethan Carol
 Beahold A Tender New Born
 Baby
 English Carol

Nativity Play

"The Gift of Tenyin" will be presented in the Nazareth Academy auditorium Wednesday evening, Dec. 18, at 8:15. The scene is set in the imperial palace of the eleventh century of Japan. The setting for this Oriental yuletide play.

The emperor will be played by May Defendorf. The interpreter will be played by Richard Malchuk. The emperor's daughter will be played by Aldona Sabilis, Claire Malan, Anna Schubart, Anna Isacul and Audrey Spylka who play the part of Tenyin.

Members of the production staff include: Ariens Domalski, stage manager; Margaret Swanton and Christine Smet, light; Sally Clark, sound; Marilyn Moherell, Susan Mastello and Elizabeth Engert, prop; Mary Foss, Colven McKay and Kathleen Kaho, costume; Clate Kaufman, Joyce Lazzellin, Anita Cerams and Margaret Casey, stage crew, and the dramatics class, publicity.

Freshmen Perform

The Kings freshman class presented "Merry in Nomania," a Christmas fantasy on Dec. 11 for the student body. Co-directors were seniors, Barbara Hoffman and Pat Hoffman.

Leading roles were played by Cindy Iannessa as the Herald; Mary Ann Iannessa, as Yancu-

Yuletide Program

Bishop Kearney High School Gleec Club and Band will combine to present a Christmas program for parents and friends, Thursday evening, Dec. 19, in the school auditorium.

Selections to be offered by the band include: "Musette and March," Handel; "Music for St. Cecilia's Day," Handel; "The Sleigh Ride," Mozart; and "Children's Christmas March," Isaac.

Gleec Club members will sing three traditional numbers: "Deck the Halls," "The First Noel," and "A Christmas Medley" and two Old French carols, "Masters in this Hall" and "Bring a Torch."

Three members of the Music Department faculty will present Brahms' "Horn Trio"; Thomas Donohue, piano; Lawrence Rapp, violin; and Richard Thier, French horn.

The program will close with a Nativity tableau and a community sing in which Gleec Club, Band, and audience will unite in Christmas carols.

The Gleec Club of John Fisher College presented a program of Christmas music for the students of Bishop Kearney High School Friday morning, Dec. 13.
