The fictional story of a Prince of the Church is told on film in "The Cardinal," which will open at Schine's Mourae Theater Wednesday, Dec. 25. Its producer, Otto Preminger, recently received a papal decoration and was honored with a private audience with Pope Paul VI. These scenes from the film show climactic moments in the life of "Cardinal Fermoyle." Above Msgrs. Whittle and Fermoyle (played by Chill Wills and Tom Tryon) are shown as they are berated by segregationist pickets in Georgia.
