

Gift From Mason Supply Dealers

HOLY CHILDHOOD SCHOOL received a check from Rochester Mason Supply Dealers this week as the group's annual Christmas program. Each year the companies join together to pool funds normally expended for Christmas gifts for customers and use the money to aid local charities. Sister Seraphine, principal, is shown accepting the check from Norbert Rappi, left, of Rappi and Hoenig Co. Inc., and Joseph Weckesser of Weckesser Brick Co. Others in the group are Comac Builders Supply Co., Domine Builders Supply Corp., Flower City Builders Supply Corp., Hutchison-Bathum Inc., Keystone Builders Supply Co. and Mann Builders Supply Co. Also receiving a check from the group this year was St. Joseph's Villa. This is the ninth year for the project and more than $25,000 has been donated by the participating companies.

The Thought of Christmas

The sky is grey, but somehow light,
And still the snow keeps falling,
The ground is turning very white
Old man winter's calling.
The merriment, the Christmas cheer,
The eating still you're stuffed
The wine, the egg nog, and the myrrh,
But that is not enough.
Just stop to think, about the past,
That night so many years ago—
The place where holy light was cast,
The star . . . and its warming glow.
The sheep, the ox, the little lamb,
Gathering curiously to see
The birth of a great, great man
Who will guard both you and me.
Just think, the silence of the night
The smell of all the straw,
The shepherd in his long, cold flight,
You almost fall in awe.
The babe, he cries, like every child,
His mother comforts him
His voice is soft, tender, mild,
The light is warm and dim.
As you gather 'round your Christmas Tree,
Or start to sing a song,
Just say a little prayer and see,
A brighter Christmas throng.

Retreat Held At St. Joseph's

The Rev. Charles Fallon, C.S.S.R., of the Redemptorist Mission Band of St. Boniface, Philadelphia, conducted a three-day retreat made by the 200 students of St. Joseph's Business School.
On Dec. 11, 12, and 13 daily sessions began with Mass and Communion, followed by prayer and a series of conferences geared to teen-age thinking. Father gave the girls outlined plans for our most important "do-it-yourself" job — our soul's salvation.
On each of the retreat days, one period was dedicated to a lively, yet informative question and answer hour session. The Papal Blessing was given at the close of the retreat on Friday morning.

Drive Assures Debt Reduction

Sunday Offering contributions to Guardian Angels Church, East Henrietta Road, are expected to double in 1964 as the result of a debt reduction campaign concluded last week. The Rev. John S. Kleinfelder, pastor, announced.
Parishioners were asked to estimate what they could do to increase weekly parish support in order to accelerate reduction of debt and thereby to save on interest payments.
FATHERS KLEINFELDER turned campaign results "a tribute to the loyalty of our parishioners, many of whom will be undergoing real sacrifices in order to aid their parish."
More than 150 committeemen visited the homes of all parishioners on two successive Sundays—Dec. 1 and 2—to obtain "increased" offerings—estimates. Another aim of the drive was to promote consistent use of the Sunday envelope system by more parishioners.
Guest speakers at committee rallies included the St. Rev. Msgr. William J. Naughton, pastor of St. Anne's Church; the

Vows Exchanged

Clifton Springs—Miss Mary Lou Quigley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Quigley of 7 1/2 East Ave., and James Lewis Driscoll, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Driscoll, 10 Stevens St., were married at St. Felix Church, Clifton Springs.
The Rev. John D. Quigley, cousin of the bride, received the nuptial vows and the Rev. Francis Turner, pastor, said the Mass.
Miss Janice K. Mastay was maid of honor and John G. Allen of Clifton Springs was best man. Ushers were James W. Sanford and Robert J. Quigley.
