First Baptism in Trappist Monastery

CHRISTINE MARIE TUCKER, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Tucker, is the first child to be baptized in the Abbey of Our Lady of the Genesee, Piffard. She will be the first baby christened in any monastery of cloistered Trappist monks, one of the Church's strictest orders. Officiating at the rites on Sunday, Dec. 22, was the child's uncle, Father Charles (Thomas) Tucker, assisted by Father Bonaventure. Proxy for the godfather, Charles Tucker of San Diego, Cal., was Charles Gores, the baby's maternal grandfather. Mrs. Richard Casper was godmother. Ceremony took place in Bethlehem Chapel in the abbey's retreat house. The Tuckers reside at 1080 Joseph Ave. in Our Lady of Perpetual Help parish. (Norman Miller Photo)
