Aquinas Wins Tourney, To Meet Edison Tech

Aquinas Institute's eager, active Little Irish basketball team turned a string of seven into the biggest upset of the holiday season last Friday night as the locals whipped Waterloo, 50-20, to capture the Knickerbocker Holiday Invitation Basketball Tournament. The Irish turned its surprise on previously unbeaten Waterloo in the final round of the tournament at Knickerbocker gymnasium after Aquinas had beaten the host team the previous night, 58-71.

Janice Smith Named To U.S. Olympic Team

Janice Smith, 16-year-old graduate of Good Counsel and St. Agnes High School, was named to the six-woman squad which will represent the United States in speed skating at the forthcoming 1964 Winter Olympics at Innsbruck, Austria. Janice, at 16 the youngest of the sextet, apparently was named to the spot No. 3 spot on the team, though no official word of selection was made by Lester Otten, chairman, and Leo Preshlager, coach of the Olympic committee announcing the appointments. The Rochester speedster, who bettered world marks for Olympic distance in the trials which have been conducted in Colorado Springs, Colorado during the past week, returned home with Janice Ashworth of Lake Placid, N. Y., nominee, who was also a U.S. participant in the 1960 Olympic. They will leave for Europe from New York City next Monday.

The two women also bettered the 1,000 meter time for women in the 1960 Olympic. However, under the rules none of the times were entered for record verification since they were not recorded in a meet in which the countries were participating.

Protestants Plan Liturgy Renovation

London, (NY)—Seven of the major Protestant churches in Britain have formed a joint liturgical group to plan approved services for united worship. They are the Church of England, Episcopal (Anglican) Church of Scotland, Baptist-Union, Presbyterian Church of England, Methodist Church, Congregational Church and (Presbyterian) Church of Scotland.

Daily Evening Mass in N.Y.

New York—(RNS)—Daily evening Masses are now authorized throughout the Archdiocese of New York. According to the Chancery Office here, Francis Cardinal Spellman, Archbishop of New York, has authorized all parishes to celebrate a daily evening Mass, including Sunday, at any hour between 4 and 5 p.m. Two evening Masses may be celebrated on Holy Days of Obligation that are not legal holidays.
