The team is looking forward to their next game against St. Agnes.

Aquinas Wins Tourney, To Meet Edison Tech

Aquinas Institute's eager, active Little Irish basketball team turned a string of seven into the biggest upset of the holiday season last Friday night as the locals whipped Waterloo, 40-20, to capture the Knickerbocker Holiday Invitational Basketball Tournament. The Irish turned its surprise on previously unbeaten Waterloo in the final round of the tournament at Knickerbocker gymnasium after Aquinas had beaten the host team the previous night, 32-21. The consolation game of the tournament went to defending intercollegiate league champion East High which earned a easy 62-45 victory over Eastridge.

Janice is the youngest of the squad. She is a member of the St. Agnes skating club. She has won several national titles in speed skating. She will be representing the United States in the 500-meter and 1000-meter events.

Protestants Plan Liturgy Renovation

Representatives from the various churches concerned will meet in the near future to discuss renovation of liturgical services for united worship. Initial projects to be discussed are: 1. The planning of a calendar, forms of daily service and a list of Scriptural readings for services. 2. The planning of joint forms of service which might be used with approval of various churches on occasions for public worship. 3. Consideration of the structure of services of Holy Communion.

Daily Evening Mass in N.Y.

New York (RNS)—Daily evening Masses are now authorized throughout the Archdiocese of New York. According to the Chancery Office here, Francis Cardinal Spellman, Archbishop of New York, has authorized all parishes to celebrate a daily evening Mass, including Sunday, at any hour between 4 and 8 p.m. Two evening Masses may be celebrated on Holy Days of Obligation that are not legal holidays.

Mooney, McQuaid Doubleheader Set

Former McQuaid J.V. coach Mooney will coach the team in a doubleheader against the Knights' J.V. and the Knights' basketball squads. First game is at 6:45 with the J.V. game set for 8 p.m. Don White's McQuaid J.V. (4-1) will be making their first start since topping Aquinas at the War Memorial two weeks ago. The McQuaid freshmen, under Jim McCarthy, will be seeking for their fourth in a row.
