

Sue Warden To Compete At Saratoga

Sue Warden, 12-year-old Rochester speed skater whose training was severely curtailed by a lengthy illness, will enter her first competition of the season this weekend when she participates in the Eastern States Championship held at Saratoga Jan. 11 and 12.

She won the event last year as well as numerous other contests including the National, North American, New York State and city championships.

Although the illness left Sue weak, her coach George Blackburn states that she will skate a limited schedule this year and "will definitely make her presence known." Although her training program was drastically reduced, Blackburn feels that she still has an excellent chance to defend some, if not all, of her titles.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. (Bud) Warden of 357 Ravenwood Ave., Sue attends Our Lady of Good Counsel School. She is a neighbor of Janice Smith, recently named to the U.S. Olympic Speed Skating team.

Blackburn added that Sue is a great competitor and one of the foremost skaters in her class in the country.

Wrestling Won By McQuaid

A come-from-behind victory in wrestling and a split-second loss in swimming highlighted the activity of McQuaid Jesuit High teams on those fronts in the past week.

Dave Foley, a 155-pound junior pressed into service against an opponent some 50 pounds heavier came through with a pin in the unlimited division to climax a McQuaid rally that produced a 2-1 decision over Bishop Kearney last Saturday.

Joining Foley in contributing to the victory at Kearney were juniors Mark Hobson (130) and Doug Krenser (140), seniors Jim Conrad (160), Mike Gallagher (165) and Joe Gallagher (166), and freshmen Tim Boonker (114). Winners in a losing cause at Saratoga were sophomores Phil Reed (95), Jim Viscardi (123), Alek Mangione (129), and Doug Adelt (147), along with repeaters Quigley and Krenser.

Day Oberst, Tom Bailey and Phil Dollard of Kearney kept their winning streak going in dual meets as they all notched decision victories.

In swimming, the Knights saw two third-place points escape by a hand's length and dropped a point via disqualification as they went down to a 2-1 defeat before Canandaigua at the CIO pool last Saturday. Tuesday's loss to a powerful West squad was a bit easier to absorb, 53-45, even though it brought the season's mark to 2-3. Today's meet at Franklin should start the Knights on the road back to a possible 5-0 season, with 7 other foes left to face.

Senior Kevin Culhane, sophomore Dave Mullins, and freshman Pete Harman have been consistent winners for the Knights all season. Culhane and Mullins have spread their versatility over a half-dozen events while Harman has piled up a string of breaststroke triumphs. Against Canandaigua, all three took firsts, Culhane in the individual medley, Mullins in the butterfly and 200 free style, and Harman in his specialty.

Freshman Ed Murrer chipped in with a backstroke win and joined Harman, freshman John Odenbach, and Culhane on a winning medley relay. Sprinters John Sheehan, Larry Oakley, and John Warner—all seniors—along with Odenbach, Al Innes, and Dan Peisacher, gave the Knights 15 place points, leaving them just short of the magic 48 total needed for the win.

At West, Culhane suffered one of his infrequent defeats, in the backstroke, but turned in his best time of the year, 2:33.8, to win the individual medley. Mullins bowed in diving but captured the 100 free style, and Harman again took the breaststroke. Sheehan, Odenbach, and Oakley all had seconds.

This Friday night, the "Kings" engage St. Mary's of Lancaster at 7:30 p.m. This marks the first appearance of St. Mary's at Bishop Kearney High School. They have long been a wrestling power in upstate New York.

On Saturday, McQuaid will also wrestle the same St. Mary's team at Bishop Kearney High at 2 p.m.

Girls Win Swimming Trophy

Mooney, Kearney Cage Teams Meet

Bishop Kearney and Cardinal Mooney high schools aren't waiting until they have four classes before building up basketball enthusiasm. More than 4,000 fans are expected at 8:15 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 11, when the basketball teams of the two schools meet at the War Memorial.

Kearney, 1-0, has averaged 85 points per game while limiting its opponents to 42 points per game. Mooney is led by 5 ft. 9 in. Scott Shales, the leading scorer. A pair of 6 ft. forwards, Tom Flood and Walt Szalacki give rebounding and scoring help to Big 8-4-4 in. Gary Camp. The starting Kearney five is rounded out by 5 ft. 8 in. defensive stalwart and team captain, Pat Szatzei.

Mooney, 2-2, has averaged 53 points per game and limited its opponents to 48 points per game. The outstanding ball player for Mooney is 5 ft. 8 in. Larry Murphy, a good backcourt man averaging 14 points per game. Murphy is the "quarterback" of the team which includes Jim Wirth, Ollie Davis, Ken Hargraves and Kevin Dugan.

A year ago, Kearney, coached by Mike Spang, defeated Mooney twice. Jim Van Allen, who coached Mooney's JV's in a 17-1 record last year is the new coach at Mooney and predicts a possible change for this year.

All past performances are going to have to go out the window when these two boys schools meet. Already, they have displayed an intense rivalry when they play each other.

Joseph Tauriello Requiem Offered

Funeral Mass for Joseph Tauriello was offered by Monsignor John M. Duffy in St. Augustine's Church, Monday, Jan. 6, at 8 p.m. Mr. Tauriello, formerly of 132 Broadway St., died at his home, 209 East Ave., East Rochester, Jan. 2, 1964.

Surviving are his wife, Rose Graziano Tauriello; four sons, Major Daniel Tauriello, Air Corps, Seattle, Wash.; Michael Webster, Frank, New York City; and Joseph Tauriello; one daughter, Mrs. Sappal (Frances) Vanke, Pittsford; one brother, Fred Tauriello, Rochester; four sisters, Mrs. Steve Pusateri, Mrs. John Millitelli, Mrs. Margaret Weigand and Mrs. John Scheel, all of Rochester; 10 grandchildren.

Blessing at the grave in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery was given by Rev. Leo Lynch. Arrangements by Joseph A. Murphy, Inc., Funeral Home, Hill Ave.

At West, Culhane suffered one of his infrequent defeats, in the backstroke, but turned in his best time of the year, 2:33.8, to win the individual medley. Mullins bowed in diving but captured the 100 free style, and Harman again took the breaststroke. Sheehan, Odenbach, and Oakley all had seconds.
