

Projects Advanced In Diocesan Parishes

A new auditorium, library and four classroom additions will be blessed by Bishop Kearney at St. Thomas More parish, Brighton, Wednesday, Feb. 7. Classrooms, library and corridors are carpeted wall to wall.

The parish of Christ the King Church, the Rev. William J. Schmitt, announces contracts have been let and actual construction begun on the new convent in the parish of Christ the King, Irondequoit.

A most noteworthy feature of this construction, which utilizes load-bearing brick walls, is the fact that no parish drive nor solicitation was initiated because of the filling program adopted by many of the parishioners in March 1963. "The generosity of the conscientious parishioners has eliminated the need for an arduous fund raising campaign," according to the pastor.

THE ARCHITECTS are the firm of Ribson and Roberts; the contractors are: Lescage Corporation, general contractor; Walter Ennis, plumbing; Schuler Electric, electric and Leo J. Roth, heating, ventilating and air-conditioning.

Clothing For World's Needy

Drive Report Highest Ever

The 15th annual Thanksgiving Clothing Collection for the needy of the world, conducted during the week of Nov. 17 in 142 parishes and two institutions of the Rochester Diocese, amassed a record total of 564,568 pounds of usable clothing, according to the final report issued this week by the Rev. E. Leo McManus, diocesan director. This total exceeds the previous record, made in 1952, by 35,644 pounds.

Bishop Kearney sent a note of congratulations to Father McManus, clothing drive coordinator. "I am very happy to congratulate all who took part on the excellent results of the clothing drive. I am sure this great work of mercy will bring many rich blessings to the Diocese," he said.

SACRED HEART Cathedral again led the parishes with a contribution of 22 tons. Other large contributions were made by St. Alphonsus, Auburn (18,064 lbs.); St. Margaret, Mary (14,019 lbs.); St. Charles, Boromeo, Greece (13,900 lbs.); St. John Evangelist, Greece (12,950 lbs.); St. Anne, Rochester (12,846 lbs.); St. Ambrose (12,512 lbs.); and St. James, Rochester (10,518 lbs.). A new parish, St. John of Rochester, Perinton, participated for the first time.

These impressive figures represent the generous response of thousands of parishioners to the urgent request of Bishop Kearney that we strive to do those in need," said Father McManus. "They represent also thousands of hours donated by volunteers, as well as a considerable expense to the individual parishes, which have gladly borne the cost of shipping the clothing to the Brooklyn warehouse of Catholic Relief Services."

The promotion of the Thanksgiving Clothing Collection was entrusted by Bishop Kearney to the Diocesan Council of Catholic Women. The diocesan moderator of the Council served as area director of the clothing drive, and publicity was directed by Miss Sophie Cudifin and Mrs. Frederick Holland of the Council.

The nationwide clothing collection began in 1949. It is conducted by Catholic Relief Services, the relief and rehabilitation agency of the American Catholic Bishops, to aid the needy overseas and wherever emergencies may arise.

Rosarians Hear Retreat Talk

The Altar and Rosary Society of St. Charles Borromeo Church, Elmira Heights, held its monthly meeting Thursday, Jan. 8. The recitation of the rosary preceded the meeting.

Retreats was the subject of a talk given by Rev. Joseph G. McKie. He expressed the extreme enjoyment received from the participation in a retreat.

A bake sale is to be held at the Acme Market in Elmira Heights on Saturday, Jan. 25 from 9 a.m. to 12 noon. All members are asked to donate the baked goods and bring them to the market. Mrs. Alice Gilroy is chairman.

Seminary Sets Parents' Meet

The first meeting of 1964 of the St. Andrew's Seminary Parents Association will be held at the seminary, Monday, Jan. 20, 8 p.m. sharp.

Franklin Kemp of the St. Andrew's teaching staff will discuss the overall English program at the seminary and the reactions of a lay teacher in a seminary environment.

A social hour will follow the business meeting.

St. Thomas More parish auditorium will seat 600 people and provide facilities for basketball games with 200 spectators seated on fold-away bleachers. Kitchen, shower and stage facilities are also included.

Lenten Club Booklet Out

Lenten Discussion Club Booklet for 1964 will be "What Every Catholic Should Know" by Medemlorist Fathers, the Rev. Albert H. Schnacky, diocesan director of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine announced today.

"The book," Father Schnacky said, "treats in a clear and practical way what every Catholic should know about his Church, his home and his personal life. We are confident that any Catholic who studies it will gain a clearer knowledge of his faith and its application to the problems of his everyday life."

Membership certificates will be issued at the end of Lent to all who have participated in the Lenten Discussion Clubs. Information on the books is available at the Confraternity office, 50 Chestnut St. or a priest's.

Debt Reduction Drive Announced

Palmyra—Acceleration of parish debt reduction will be the principal aim of an increased Sunday Offering program to be inaugurated next month in St. Ann's Church.

The Rev. John J. Healy, administrator, has asked all parishioners to consider an increase in their weekly contributions in order to hasten amortization of the $90,300 parish debt and thereby save hundreds of dollars in interest charges.

Nearly 100 committeemen will visit parishioners Sunday afternoon, Jan. 25, to ask their cooperation with the program.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Edward K. Ball, V.F., pastor of St. Francis de Sales Church, Geneva, will be principal speaker at the committee's kick-off dinner at 6:30 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 25, in St. Anne's Church hall. Women of the parish will serve the dinner.

COMMITTEEMEN WILL visit the homes of all parishioners the following day to seek estimates of Sunday offering contributions for the 12 months beginning in February.

Father Healy announced a meeting of the campaign committee at 9 p.m. Monday, Jan. 20.

Cochairmen of the campaign committee are David Breer, Richard Garney, James Sapina and Charles Vax Scott. Funding committees of women are: Mrs. Goodness, Mary McQuire, Millie Perzyns and Isabelle Poller.

St. Ann's is one of the oldest parishes in the area. It was founded in 1850. Pastors have included: Rev. John G. Miller, 1850-52; Rev. Michael Gilbride, 1852-54; Rev. John Donnelly, 1854; Rev. Thomas Walsh, 1854-55; Rev. William Casey, 1855-59; Rev. James Hartley, 1859-1920; Rev. Edward Dwyer, 1920-30; Rev. Hugh Crowley, 1930-39; Rev. William Doran, 1939-49. Father Healy was named administrator June 21, 1957.

It was in the latter part of the nineteenth century that chapels were established in four nearby communities, which now are separate parishes. They are Macedon, Victor, Fairport and Ontario.

St. Ann's School, opened in 1961, is staffed by four Sisters of St. Joseph. It has an enrollment of 124 children.

First Class

St. Ann's Home Graduates Aides

St. Ann's Home graduated its first formal class of Nursing Aides on Sunday, Jan. 12. All full-time aides employed by St. Ann's Home were enrolled in the class regardless of length of service.

This group of 54 completed 20 hours of classroom instruction and 20 hours of supervision under the teaching of the Director of Ancillary Personnel.

THE COURSE is designed to teach basic nursing principles and skills, introduce the aides to the philosophy of geriatrics and/or long term care, and to introduce them to the aides' relation to their other team-workers. Its aim is to prepare the aide to become a trained assistant to the professional staff of St. Ann's Home.

The course was given by Mrs. Virginia Fishery, R.N., who is also a nursing instructor for the American Red Cross. She was assisted in the supervision by Mrs. Jeanne Donato, R.N., Sister Karen, Director of Nursing, presented the graduates at the public ceremony for the first time in their newly adopted aqua pinafore and cap. Each member received from Sister-Thomazine, administrator, newly designed and distinguished St. Ann's Home Nursing Aide Pin.

A short address on the important role of the nursing aide in the nursing field today was given by Sister Anne Maurice, S.S.N., former director of nursing at St. Joseph's Hospital, Elmira. The ceremony was closed by a short dedication by Father Leo Lynch, chaplain at St. Ann's Home.

A reception for the aides, their families and administrative nursing staff of St. Ann's Home followed the ceremony.
