Annual Retreat For Ten Years

Moment of Adoration — as Bishop Kearney lifts consecrated Host at Laymen's Retreat League Mass Monday evening at St. Joseph's Church, Rochester. Tabulation of retreatants by parishes will be published in next week's Courier.

Notre Dame Highlights

THE TRAPP FAMILY Singers will invade the Notre Dame Auditorium on Jan. 16, as the German Club sponsors a movie to raise funds for its year's program. The film, done in English, will be shown during the ninth period and after school for those interested.

Final plans are being laid for the twenty students and four faculty members from Notre Dame High School, Elmira, who will travel to the University of Scranton Lay Apostolate Workshop in late January. Ten juniors and ten seniors, together with Sisters Mary Jonatha, Student Council moderator, Sister Mary Cornelia, Freshman Socially moderator, Sister Mary Billaire, Senior Class Adviser and Sister Marie Raymond, Publications Adviser, will leave on Jan. 31 for the two-day session.

Registration has been limited, so the forty who originally signed to attend had to be cut in half. Aside from the responsibility to themselves, those attending now have the added responsibility of bringing to those unable to attend, the message that will be given to Christian youth at the workshop.

Candidates for the annual Duke and Duchess campaign for the March of Dimes, have been named. As in former years, collection boxes with pictures of the candidates have been placed in homerooms and the cafeteria. The actual royalty couple will be determined by the amount of the cash donation in each box prior to the Student Council dance scheduled for Jan. 20.

Wanda Circle Sets Session

Wanda Circle of St. Casimir's Church, Elmira, will have a business meeting on Thursday, Jan. 23 at 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. John Cigo and Mrs. John Augustine are co-chairmen. They are assisted by the Mesdames Cusy Buback, Teckla Bulas, Edward Byer, John Cherry, Anthony Stachowski, Fred Maloney and Miss Mary Billy.

Notre Dame Quint Tops Corning Fives

Notre Dame defeated both Corning East and West to boost her season record to 8-1 mark.

East High was the first to be overcome by the Crusaders to the tune of 74-67. Notre Dame lead the first half and was not in any danger until Corning tied it up 65-65 with only a few minutes remaining. Then with a seven point scoring spree, the Crusaders jumped ahead to win. Limoncelli and Kent were high scorers with 17 apiece, followed by McCarthy with 10.

The Crusaders knocked off the Corning West team by a margin of 81-47. Flynn's Crusaders hit on 33 per cent of their floor shots, as they had done in the Corning East game. Kent and McCarthy spearheaded the Notre Dame attack with 14 points apiece, besides numerous rebounds. Speedy Mike Johnson outmaneuvered the West quint to rack up 11 points, followed by Roeplock who sank 10.

The N.D. junior varsity lost to East High, 60-43, but retaliated with a 58-31 win over Corning West.

Tuesday saw the Crusaders hosting Horseheads on the home court and tonight will find the Crusaders travelling across the boards to Southside for another of the big intra-city games of the season.

Elsewhere on the sports scene, the varsity wrestling team will take on Seton of Edin-
