Yorkers Club Numbers 31 From Mt. Morris

Mt. Morris—Thirty-one history students of the seventh and eighth grades of St. Patrick's School have joined the Yorkers Club, officially known as the New York State Junior Historical Association.

The St. Patrick's students are members of the Tuscarora Chapter organized at Mt. Morris Central School by the junior high school grades under the direction of Richard Haberlen of the Central School history department.

The junior historians meet twice a month at the central school and plan history projects, many on local history of Mt. Morris and the Genesee Valley. Deborah Esposito, an eighth grader at St. Patrick's School, is second vice president of the Tuscarora chapter.

In the past four months that St. Patrick's students have been members of the Yorkers, they have had an active part in the programs and are giving a very good account of themselves Mr. Haberlen said.

A tribute to St. Patrick's School was published in the chapter paper with a page of the history of the 52-year-old local Catholic institution. The school has about 225 students registered with Sister M. Joathan as principal.
