Also a public supper is planned for Jan. 22 at the Center.
The Court voted to have a Mass said for Miss Elizabeth Holleran, a Past District Deputy, recently deceased.

Mrs. Armstadt Shannon, Mission Chairman of Court Lourdes, gave the following report:
A box containing men's shoes, 1 pair of women's shoes, 1 pair of children's shoes, 1 yard new material, 35 medals and scapulars and Rosaries were sent out the first of the year to St. Jude's Church at Summit, North Carolina. This is one of several of Court Lourdes Mission projects.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Harold Schulte, Mrs. Charles Frost and Mrs. John Carpenter.

Sports Cast

Who says history does not repeat itself?
Jim Flynn, N.D. basketball coach, will play a little that history does not repeat itself.
Lately, Flynn kept harried senior Mary O'Donnell on his team. The Crusader senior coach regretted the move. Mary had earned a starting position by mid-season and went on to capture an honorable mention in the All-City balloting.

This winter Flynn kept another senior lacking variety experience. He was John A. McCarthy. Like O'Donnell, McCarthy has won a place on the first five. Tireless John, however, has overshadowed Mary in the scoring department. Through the first eight games last year, O'Donnell was carrying a 7.4 point average; comparatively McCarthy has an eye-catching 11.7 point average for the same number of contests.

In the last five games McCarthy has failed to dip below a double figure. He was a better contributor to Notre victories over Cornings and Horseheads as he caught 15 and 22 points respectively.

CDA Schedules Father O'Brien
Elmira's Court St. Rita No. 137, Catholic Daughters of America will hold a Communion-Breakfast on Sunday, Jan. 26 at 9:30 a.m. at St. Peter and Paul's Hall. The speaker will be Rev. Bartholomew J. O'Brien, pastor.

Mrs. Emil Segur, Grand Regent, has appointed the following committee:
Miss Mary Fitzgerald, tickets; Mrs. John Murphy and Mrs. Nicholas Spillone, telephoning; Mrs. Floyd Wilcox, decorations; Mrs. Edward Knutels and Mrs. Harry L. Kahler, Jr., entertainment; Miss Anastasia Roschinski, programs; Miss Mary T. McCall.

Also a public supper is planned for Jan. 22 at the Center.
