

Aguias Face New Foes

Three minutes in double figures, 12 players in the scoring columns and a strong effort from the free throw line enabled Aguias to defeat West High School last Saturday at the Community War Memorial.

Aguias' points and perfect free throw shooting, 100 percent, were the key factors.

It was Aguias' game all the way, the winners dragging out the game in the last period after Coach Kelly had cleared his bench.

On the previous day, Aguias' varsity invaded the West Memorial gym and walked off with a 77-32 victory. Using the second and third units from midway in the second period, the Irish Jayvees led 32-15 at the intermission.

Aguias was paced by John LeVack, who scored 12 of his 16 points in the first period. Wayne Desbrow followed with 10 points. Thirteen players broke into the scoring column for rookie coach, Ed Calvaruso.

Aguias students will put aside extracurricular activities for the next week and a half as they prepare for and write mid-year examinations.

The Irish inaugurate the second semester with home games against Mount Carmel on Jan. 21 and Franklin on Feb. 1.

Kings Seek Sixth Win At Aquinas

The first game of a double-header.

The win gave Aquinas a 3-0 record with 7 games remaining—five against teams it considered the first half of the season.

Things got off to a slow start with both teams showing cold shooting hands in the early going. Bill Warden scored the first basket and Aquinas was away, racing to a 20-1 first quarter. Warden had to wait until almost ten minutes had elapsed before Chuck Trubis tested in a long jumper to break the ice from the field.

Tom Pasquas, 6-foot-6 senior center, again stole the show for Jack Kelly's club. The smooth, running ace, who remained all night under the hoop, scored 14 points while playing only half the game.

Backing up Pasquas in the center, again stole the show for Jack Kelly's club. The smooth, running ace, who remained all night under the hoop, scored 14 points while playing only half the game.

The game will be played at Aquinas Institute, with a head-to-head contest preceding the JV game at 7 p.m.

Wrestlers Face Franklin

The varsity wrestling team of Bishop Kearney High will take on the very strong varsity wrestling team from Franklin High on Saturday night, Jan. 27.

This year the wrestling team is competing on a varsity level even though they only have freshmen and sophomores, who are competing against juniors and seniors. The team thus far has a 4-1 record on the year with two of its wrestlers undefeated. Dan Oberst, who wrestles at 125 lbs has not lost a dual meet in his last 15 outings and this year leads the team in scoring with 29 pts. Tom Kelly, who wrestles at 147 lbs. is the other undefeated wrestler for the Kings. He has not lost a dual meet in his last 25 outings.

The JV wrestling team with 3-0-1 record thus far will stage the JV wrestling team from Franklin at 7 p.m. The varsity encounter will follow at 8:15 p.m. in the Bishop Kearney High gym.

Bishop Kearney High School's wrestling squad defeated the Victor Varsity team 20-0 at Keedree.

The Kings built up a quick 12-3 lead in the first five minutes and were never headed back then on.

McQuaid Rallies To Beat Edison

Climbing hills can be tough work, but the view at the top is usually worth it.

McQuaid Jesuit High's basketball Knights did some powerful climbing in the second half against Edison last Saturday, coming back from a 17-point deficit to catch, pass, and finally defeat the Technicians, 60-57, in a double-overtime thriller at the War Memorial.

A night earlier, the Knights had it downhill most of the way against a visiting Leroy club, hopping out to a 26-0 halftime lead and winning finally, 35-33.

The wins brought McQuaid's season record to 3-3, with Madison this next opponent, at McQuaid this Saturday.

There were heroes galore in the Knights' comeback against Edison. Tony Leonardo fired in a succession of long jump shots to get them scrambling uphill after Edison had added a point to its 33-17 halftime bulge. At one stretch he had 9 points in a row as McQuaid cut the gap to 43-34.

Joining Leonardo in the third period splurge were Bob Brady and Mike Spiegel, who hit for the first three baskets of the period and then combined for another 11 points in the hectic late going. It was Spiegel who put McQuaid ahead to stay when he tapped in a shot by Leonardo for a 57-55 lead 50 seconds into the second overtime. And Brady, after clutching the comeback with a jumper for a 59-59 lead at the 2:40 mark in regulation time, came through with a laying defensive play on Edison's Fred Coley just as time ran out in the fourth quarter.

Joe Miller was another vital operator for the Knights, scoring all 5 of his points in the closing stages and working in heavily on rebounding and defense. Miller's foul shot brought the 51-51 tie in regulation and his layup on a feed from Spiegel gave McQuaid an early lead in the decisive overtime period.

Backcourtman Lance Combs held up in check by the Edison zone, and most of the prob-

Seminary Tops Roberts

St. Andrew's Seminary defeated Roberts Wesleyan 47-22 Saturday with the Seminary playing a tight defensive game at the start. After falling behind 15-12, Tim Woods and Mike Hall started the team moving with a fast break and a 23-27 half-time lead.

The lead was never lost in the second half with Combs pacing the team with 17 points.

Matching Filter-Flo Washer

... gets clothes truly clean

Even your big 12 lb. load gets extra cleaning action, thanks to G-E's famous filter-flo system. Detergent is placed in the non-clogging, moving filter where it is dissolved and evenly dispensed throughout the wash load. Then the water is returned through the filter trapping lint and fuzz. The filter is located right at the opening—it's easy to remove and clean. For your convenience there's two wash speeds, two spin speeds plus a Normal, Short and Soak cycle.
