Fr. O'Sullivan Off To Kenya

Dominec Father Peter (Michael) Sullivan will leave tomorrow, Saturday, Feb. 1, to begin teaching duties in Nairobi, Kenya, in east Africa, heart of much of that continent's turmoil.

The 28 year old Rochester native is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald O'Sullivan, 16 Electric Ave., in Sacred Heart Cathedral parish.

"I always wanted to do missionary work, but this assignment came as a complete surprise," he said. He was in mid-term teaching high school in Columbus, Ohio.

"The reason for the change now," he said, "is because classes in Kenya run from February to November."

Fr. Sullivan is a faculty member of the novitiate staffed St. Thomas Aquinas Seminary for novice clergy in Nairobi.

St. Eustace Knights Seek New Members

Entering its 20th year in Rochester, St. Eustace Commandery, No. 29, Knights of St. John is planning an intensive membership campaign to double its membership during the year.

Leaders in the campaign are stressing the fact that the Knights of St. John date back to 1098 A.D. when it was formed as a military society for protection against the infidels and to maintain hospices for travelers and hospitals for the sick, one of which still exists in Jerusalem.

APPLICATIONS for membership are being obtained from Charles H. Mura, 160 Weaver St., Rochester, N.Y. 14621 or by calling HO 7-3166. Any Catholic man, 16 or over may join, Mura said today.

Officers of St. Eustace Commandery are: Very Rev. Joseph Borton, C.S.R., pastor of St. Joseph's Church, spiritual advisor; William G. Biel, president; Bernard A. Smith and Francis J. Tascione, vice-presidents; Charles H. Mura, recording and corresponding secretary; Stanley Brandage, financial secretary; Theodore J. Mueller, treasurer; Charles H. Meyer, assistant treasurer; Bernard Lawton and Arnold J. Eckert, trustees for two years; Captain Eugene K. Eckert; Phys. Lieutenant William Higgins; William Gail, Harold Getzer and James Maginnis are also trustees.

They were voted in office by Regimental Quartermaster Albert Eckert, and A.D.C. William Schwab. Guests were Col. John G. Bittner and Major Edward A. Goldberg.

Named district commandery delegates were Captain Eckert, Eugene G. Biel, and James Maginnis. Delegates to New York State Grand Commandery were Mura and General Emil G. Eckert.

Appointees to regimental administrative committees are: M.E.R.A. membership - Arnold Eckert; ritualistic - William G. Bittner; financial - Eugene Eckert; military - Stanley Brandage; public relations - Charles H. Meyer; new recruits - Eugene Eckert; social activities - Bernard J. Lawton; field work - Eugene Eckert.
