Uniform Day At St. Joseph's

Uniform Day observance was held at St. Joseph's School of Nursing on Thursday, Jan. 29.

The day began with a High Mass offered for the intentions of the entire student body sung by the students. At 4 p.m. in the gymnasium, the 38 freshmen, along with the first time in uniform and cap, filed into the Little Flower Chapel where the observance also in uniform, was held.

TRADITIONAL passing on of the spirit of nursing was symbolized as each freshman lifted a candle from the lamp held by Student Government Association President, Dorothy Hubert and Junior Class President, Judith Pietro. Three candles were then placed as gifts offerings before the shrines of St. Joseph and the Blessed Mother. A sermon by the Rev. William McCall, assistant pastor of St. Mary's Church, Elmira, followed the relations of a pledge of fidelity to duty by the entire class. The ceremony was climaxed with Benediction.

Following the ceremony, a faculty-student dinner at which the freshmen were guests of honor was held in the cafeteria of the Nurses' Residence. Following the dinner, the students presented the Rev. Philip McGhan, hospital chaplain, with gifts commemorating the completion of his 35th year as chaplain at St. Joseph's.
