Junior Miss Slated For Mercy Stage

Mercy "misses," especially the juniors, have circled Friday and Saturday, Feb. 7 and 8, as red-letter days. Both of those evenings, Junior Miss, the play adaptation of Sally Benson's comedy, will be presented on Mercy's stage with a predominantly senior cast. Show time is 8 p.m.

Sophomore Mimi Kennedy will act as Mrs. Graves, the mother, finds herself surrounded by juniors Mary Kay Robinson in "Junior Miss" Judy; Julia Thuring as her sister Lois; Margaret Hill as her brother Wesley, Dutty; Sylvia Fitzsimmons as secretary; and Claudia Kalbfleisch as Hazel the maid.

Understudies include Mary Pat Meagher, Mary Kay Lavelle, Ann Rogers and Amy Bender.

The male cast lists Jim Connor and Paddie Smith, both of St. John Fisher College; John Rodman, Rhinos Tech; and Ken Verspralle, Jim Owen, Steve Bailey, Mike Deary and Dan Mack, all of McQuaid.

Senior Pat Miller is assistant director, according to Sister Mary Pius, director. Backstage chairmen include Polly Eble, publicity; Kathy Neidert, make-up; Terry Gilligan, set; Marsha Dobrynski, props; Gail Benjamin, wardrobe; Nancy Lomenzo and Monica Bishop, lights and sounds; and Mary Pat Meagher and Tena Bacon, prompters.

Musical Comedy Set By Perosian Choir

"First Impressions," a musical comedy based on Jane Austen's "Pride and Prejudice," will be presented by the Nazareth Academy Perosian Choir and a male chorus Feb. 9 and 10 at 8:15 p.m. in the Nazareth auditorium on Lake Avenue.

The comedy is based on the folly of first impressions which result in a clash between the pride of Mr. Darcy and the prejudice of Elizabeth Bennet. Complications arise as a match-making mother participates in a matrimonial game to win husbands for each of her five daughters. The musical is alive with wit and satire as it exposes character sometimes through a single phrase.

Playing leading roles are Helen Conway, "Elizabeth Bennet"; Ray[illegible]endorf of Monroe Community College, "Fitz William Darcy"; Mary Jo Cook, "Mrs. Bennet"; Virginia Guarino, "Jane Bennet"; and Richard Hommel of Black Friars, "Mr. Collins."

Other characters are Albert Gentile of St. John Fisher College, "Mr. Bennet"; Jean Marie Rotondo, "Mary Bennet"; Gale Ewanow, "Lydia Bennet"; Marilyn Metherell, "Kitty Bennet"; Jean Reisinberger, "Lady Catherine"; Jean Arioli, "Lady Anne"; Evelyn Fleming, "Lady Lucas"; Paula Petracra, "Charlotte Lucas"; Richard Majchrzak of Aquinas Institute, "Sir William Lucas"; Kevin Delcoun of St. John Fisher College, "Captain Wickham"; George Werner of Monroe Community College, "Mr. Stubbs"; Ron Paprocki of Aquinas Institute, "Williams"; and Ruth Messare, a maid.

The orchestra will be conducted by Alfred Castle. Jo Ann Weiss will accompany at the [illegible] is director of stage sets and lighting.

Admission is $1. Tickets may be purchased at the door or from Perosian Choir and Glee Club members.

U.S. Catholic Schools On Wednesday TV

New York — (NC) — The CBS-TV network said here it will broadcast a special program about Catholic education and its role in federal aid to education controversy on Feb. 5.

Entitled "The Catholics and the Schools," the program is one of a "CBS Reports" series. It will be broadcast from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. EST.

Catholic and public school educators, legislators and Federal officials will be participants in the program. [illegible] operation of St. Mary [illegible] St. Louis, and of St. [illegible] District High School, Pittsburgh, will be seen on the program, CBS said.

Noonday Meet Reviews Birth Control Book

Ninety per cent of married women are capable of using rhythm for family planning, claims a Catholic marriage expert in his new book, "BIRTH CONTROL AND CATHOLICS." This conclusion implies that proper medical advice is available and being used, writes Msgr. George A. Kelly, the author and Family Life Director of the Archdiocese of New York.

HIS BOOK was reviewed by the Rev. Gerald Dunn, Rochester's Family Life Bureau director, last Tuesday at the Catholic Evidence library.

"The author has always been known for his practical, down-to-earth approach," commented Father Dunn, "and this book, about a sensitive and controversial area, is no exception."

After delineating the Christian ideal of marriage, Msgr. Kelly indicates the modern factors which are exerting such pressure on the ideal. Of those mentioned, Father Dunn felt that the changing status of women was perhaps most significant.

"If the 'emancipated woman' feels that child-bearing will hinder her efforts to achieve equality with men, she will be much more receptive to the idea of few or no children," he explained.

A dangerous trend in today's secularized world is the separation of sex and procreation. This has not only led to widespread contraceptive thinking in marriage, but an alarming increase in sex deviants.

"Man keeps tampering with human nature, and trying to avoid God's plan for sex and marriage," commented Father Dunn.

"Whatever the temporary advantages of these unnatural solutions may be, the long-range results always prove disastrous," he went on.

The Kelly book predicts a rising number of abortions, the final desperate of those who have tried contraceptives and failed to impede conception.

"In the final analysis, the Catholic approach to this problem must include a realistic confidence in God's providence. Msgr. Kelly's treatment of this is indeed excellent," added Father Dunn.

Pops Concert At Eastman

A special pops concert, "The Musical World of Ballet" will be presented by the Rochester Civic Orchestra in two performances at the Eastman Theatre.

Dr. Paul White will conduct the concerts, both slated for Saturday, Feb. 8, at 8:15 p.m. and Sunday, Feb. 9 at 4 p.m.

Included in the program will be Ginastera's Malambo, Tschaikowsky's Swan Lake Ballet Suite, de Falla's Ritual Fire Dance, and Berceuse and Finale from The Firebird, by Stravinsky.

Tickets to "The Musical World of Ballet" are now on sale at the Eastman Theatre box office.

Disc Notes

[illegible] Gershwin [illegible] Porgy and Bess, Of Thee I Sing, Pardon My English, Let 'Em Eat Cake, Shall We Dance, A Damsel in Distress, and The Goldwyn Follies. A most charming and enjoyable record.

Volume 2 of All Time Hootenanny Folk Favorites has been released by [illegible] now [illegible] by me without ever having heard it or even heard of it, but if Volume 2 is any indication of its worth, I am going to hunt down Volume 1.

A variety of Hootenanny favorites are heard including The Weavers singing Clementine, Oscar Brand and the Tarriers with Raise A Ruckus Tonight, Josh White, the Ivy League Trio, the Osbourne Brothers, the Wilburn Brothers and many others.

The choice of tunes combined with the choice of artists in this album provides an impressive array of creative styling and fascinating music. An album you will play often.

Coral Records offers 12 all-time favorites in a new album, McGuire Sisters Showcase. The perfect blend of voices that has been the trademark of the McGuire Sisters offer music that is smoothly danceable as well as light and pleasing to the ear.

Included [illegible] Days, Oh How I Miss You Tonight, Sugartime Twist, Red River Valley, Tear on My Pillow, The Unforgiven, Just Because, I Don't Know Why, More Hearts Are Broken That Way, To Be Loved, The Last Dance, and I Do, I Do, I Do.

Wipe Out, Point Panic, Surfer Joe and Waikiki Run are four of the biggest single hits of the day. The boys who are responsible for the tremendous popularity of these songs have recorded their first album for Decca, The Surfaris Play.

As the sport of surfing spreads from the beaches of Southern California, to cities and towns across the country and the world, so its music keeps pace. There is no single explanation as to what "surfing music" is. It could be called a modified version of rock [illegible] roll but it has a [illegible] than [illegible] and roll. The instrumentation usually consists of two guitars, bass, drums and sax. Sure to be a favorite record for the teenagers and many parents as well.

Wilderness Adventure

Extraordinary close-up photography of wild mammals will be shown in the Audubon Screen Tour "Wilderness Adventures" on Saturday, Feb. 1, at 10:30 a.m. at Rochester Museum of Arts and Sciences. More than eight years in production, the film covers the states of Wyoming, Montana and Idaho.
