CAN YOU ACCEPT THE CHALLENGE TO SERVE CHRIST IN THE ORDER OF OUR LADY OF MERCY Founded in the 13th Century? WRITE TO: VOCATIONAL DIRECTOR St. Raymond Monastery Seminary 16 E. 10th St. New York 10003

GOD LOVE YOU!

By MOST REV. FULTON J. SHEEN

The Council has not yet discussed that subject which, not theoretically but practically, affects its relation to the world; namely, the Missions. Ecumenism is concerned with the Church and Christian sects. But "Mission" is concerned with every creature in the world, not only every soul: "Preach the Gospel to every creature," said Our Lord.

Who in the Church has to learn most about Mission? The Church of the Western World! The Missions have been regarded as a founding on the doorstep of the Church of the Western World and, in particular, the United States. Missions have not been a legitimate child to be doted and cared for, fed and nourished, but something that interrupts one's comfort and peace until it has been thrust into other hands. Once or twice a year, a collection is taken for the 2,000 million who do not know Christ, and an odd gift here and there is sent to the founding.

The Council will remind the Catholics of the Western World that the Missions are not foundlings to whom we give gifts, but our own flesh and blood whom we serve before we please ourselves. The Council, furthermore, will recall the words of Our Lord to His Church in which He united two ideas that may not be divorced. One: "I have come not to be ministered unto, but to minister" — this means Mission. The other: "And to give my life for the redemption of many" — this is Passion. Mission is service of others; Passion is the crucifixion of self for others. Our Lord intertwined the Church and the Crucifix, the Body and its surrender in love, the source of Divine Power and the love by which that power is surrendered to others.

In the Missions, the Church can present itself to the world only as a servant, not as Lord; only as giver, not as receiver. Its symbol is the towel with which its Divine Founder girded Himself to wash the feet of His Disciples and then told us to do likewise. In a prosperous country, we are likely to feel that, as masters of wealth, we should first supply our wants before caring for the needs of others. We are all ready to fight for first places at table, but few of us fight for the towel of service in the Missions.

You may think this column too general for you to do anything about, saying it refers to the Church, the bishops and the priests. But YOU are the Church and you are waiting to the wedding of Mission and Passion. By sending a sacrifice, you will make us bishops and priests remember: "What God hath put together, let no man put asunder."

GOD LOVE YOU to A.H. for $5 "For my intentions." ... to Mrs. H.B. for $100 "In thanksgiving for my mother's happy death. She died with a priest at her side which was her last wish and prayer." ... to J.D.H. for $100 "I never really knew what you mean by 'The Power of the World' until a recent trip to Mexico. I came away depressed by my unanswered question, 'Why do I have so much when so many have so little?'"

MISSION combines the best features of all other magazines: stories, pictures, statistics and details, human interest. Take an interest in the suffering humanity of the mission world and send your sacrifice along with a request to be put on the mailing list of this bi-monthly magazine.

Cut out this column, pin your sacrifice to it and mail it to Most Rev. Fulton J. Sheen, National Director of The Society for the Propagation of the Faith, 388 Fifth Avenue, New York N.Y. 10001, or your Diocesan Director, Rev. John F. Duffy, 50 Chestnut Street, Rochester, New York 14605.

Ecumenical

A Long Time

"Mischunstell" (NC)—A Swiss church here shared and owned jointly for years by Catholics and Protestants will be taken over by Catholics soon.

The church, dating back to the Middle Ages, served both denominations, because neither was able to maintain a separate church.

The Protestants, however, are now building a church of their own. As soon as it is completed, Catholics will remodel the old Catholic church. While it is being done, they will be allowed to use the new Protestant church.
