Noon Review Lists Lawyer

Daniel Callahan's much discussed new book, 'THE MIND OF THE CATHOLIC LAYMAN' will be reviewed by Rochester lawyer Herma Wals Jr. next Tuesday in the Catholic Evidence Library at 12:30 p.m.

The Callahan work, which examines the role of the laity in the American Catholic scene, is the third book to be analyzed in the current Noonday Book Review series.

Mr. Wals, this week's critic, is an active Catholic in both Church and community affairs. He was the first president of the Catholic Interracial Council when it was founded here four years ago, and is currently serving on the Human Relations Commission.

The Noonday Book Review, a special service of the Catholic Evidence Library, is sponsored by the Monroe County Council of Catholic Women.

To Be Wed

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Nadig of Gravel Road, West Webster, announced the engagement of their daughter, Lee Mary, to Robert W. Smaring, son of Mrs. Robert J. Smaring and the late Mr. Smearing of Lakeville.

Scout Week In Horseheads

Troop 32, St. Mary's, Horseheads, will celebrate Boy Scout Week by setting up camp at the St. Mary's school area this coming Saturday, Feb. 8.

A complete campsite will be erected for the purpose of highlighting Boy Scout Week and demonstrating to the members of the sponsoring organization the equipment and skills of the scouts in Troop 32.

THE CAMPSITE will remain up until the end of all the Sunday Masses held at the school on Feb. 9.

A cub pack, will assist in the Mass cub pack, will assist in the Mass at 8:30 a.m. and will receive Holy Communion in a body at that Mass. During all the Masses of the day, scouts will assist in serving the Mass as altar boys. Of the 37 scouts registered in Troop 32, 21 are altar boys.

Immediately following the 8:30 a.m. Mass, hot chocolate and donuts will be served to the scouts at the campsite.

A campfire is planned for Saturday evening at the site. Parents and friends are invited to visit the troop at that time.

The above plans have been made by the troop patrol council with the guidance of the Scoutmaster, Arthur F. Linsner, assistant scoutmasters Eugene McLain, Stanley Whiteck and William Kudej.

Rosarians Set Business Meet

Members of St. Casimir's Rosary and Sacred Heart Society, Elmira, will meet in the church on Monday evening, Feb. 10 at 7:30 p.m. for recitation of the Rosary and Benediction.

A business session will follow in the school hall.

Mrs. Grace Novon, representative from New York State Electric and Gas Corporation will demonstrate and discuss new products featured by the company.

Misses Mary and Lucy Kanist are co-chairmen of the refreshment committee. Mrs. William Hayduk is in charge of decoration.
