Aquinas To Test Ulica, Penn Yan

By WHIT JOHNSON

The Aquinas Institute basketball team will try to get back into the win column this week when it travels to Ulica Sunday afternoon to battle powerful Notre Dame. Tuesday evening the Irish will entertain Penn Yan High School on the Dewey Avenue hardwood.

Last weekend Aquinas defeated Mt. Carmel of Auburn, 78-64, for its ninth win of the season but lost to Franklin in a 100-80 game, 30-64.

Aquinas managed to gather its forces in the final period to defeat the Carmelites. Mt. Carmel pulled away to a 17-11 lead at the end of one and entered the second half ahead 35-27. The Dutch brothers paced the Carmel attack with Bill Kavanagh, who scored 18 points, and Tom, captain of his team, scored with 17 markers.

Frank Wosnick spearheaded the Aquinas attack with 15 points. Jim Caverly, playing sparingly with a back leg, scored all but two of his 14 points in the second half. Jim Catoine also had 14 and Tom Peatorius chipped in 10.

with convincing wins over both Mt. Carmel and Franklin.

The Irish Jayvees took an early lead in its battle with Mt. Carmel and maintained it throughout. Pat Dinko with 14 and Jim Coffey with 12 paced the winners which had a period lead of 22-9, 31-17 and 49-24. The final score was 72-42 for Aquinas.

In the Franklin game Dinko tallied 20 points and teammate Wayne Debrauf netted 12. Franklin stayed close to Aquinas in the first period, trailing only 24-15 at the end of the period but the high-scoring Irish offense exploded for a big second half to win handily, 88-57.

Notre Dame of Ulica, Aquinas' opponent on Sunday, may be the Irish's toughest foe of the season. The Jugglers are undefeated in 14 starts. In December Aquinas hosted the Ulica club and came out the wrong end of a 95-80 game.

Aquinas coach Jack Kelly is looking for a strong performance from his 6-foot-6 senior, Center Tom Peatorius, in hope of pulling an upset. Peatorius, who has been averaging 17 points a game will have to take up some of the scoring slack left by Jim Caverly who is currently sidelined with a leg injury.

Trying to give Peatorius support in the scoring column will be Frank Wosnick, Bob Keegan,
