Scout Week In Horseheads

Troop 32, St. Mary's, Horseheads, will celebrate Boy Scout Week by setting up camp at St. Mary's school area coming Saturday, Feb. 2.

A complete campsite will be selected by the scouts for the purpose of highlighting Boy Scout Week by demonstrating the equipment and skills of the scouts in Troop 32.

THE CAMPITE will remain until the end of all the Sunday Masses held at the school on Feb. 2.

The camp will assist in the Mass at 8:30 a.m. and will receive Holy Communion in a body at that Mass. During all the Masses of the day, scouts will assist in serving the Mass as altar boys. Of the 37 scouts registered in Troop 32, 21 are altar boys.

Immediately following the 8:30 a.m. Mass, the chocolate and donuts will be served to the scouts at the campsite.

A campfire is planned for Saturday evening at the site. Parents and friends are invited to attend the camp at that time.

The above plans have been made by the troop patrol committee with the guidance of the Scoutmaster, Arthur F. Lindsay, assistant scoutmaster Eugene McLean, Stanley Winicki and William Kinsell.
