Mission Head

Monsignor Henry J. Kicker, National Secretary of the Catholic Students' Mission Crusade, will be guest speaker at the general meeting of the Mission Unit at Cardinal Mooney, Monday, Feb. 17. At that time the school will be officially affiliated with the national CSMC.

Monsignor will present the official banner to James Wallace, president, and Barbara Blund, vice-president. The 350 members will recite the pledge to Christ the King, dedicating themselves to prayer, study and sacrifice for the world missions.

Other members of the CSMC include Maryann Rober, recording secretary; Joseph Menard, treasurer; Diana Thompson, corresponding secretary; and Thomas Schmitt, sergeant-at-arms.

Mercy Retreat

Rev. Joseph Bernier, S.S., and Rev. Michael Volpe will conduct the three-day retreat at Our Lady of Mercy High School, February 19-21.

Father Bernier, retreat master at Mercy two years ago, will conduct the Junior-Senior retreat. The founder of the Youth Holy Hours, Father Bernier is a native of Scottstown, Canada, and was educated at Edmund Preparatory Seminary, Suffern, New York, and at St. Joseph Major Seminary, Cleveland, Ohio. He was ordained May 18, 1940, into the Society of the Blessed Sacrament and has been conducting retreats since 1953.

Father Volpe, assistant pastor at St. Ann's, Hornell, was formerly assistant pastor at St. Andrew's parish, Rochester. There, Father was moderator of the Youth Club and Sodality. His methods for directing youth groups have been copied in parishes throughout the diocese.

Awarded Pin

As a result of having the highest score in the school on the Betty Crocker Test, Mercy senior Pam Schum was awarded the Betty Crocker Homemaking of Tomorrow award pin. She is now eligible for the New York State competition.

One hundred Mercy contestants took the knowledge and aptitude test sponsored by the Betty Crocker Search for the American Homemaker of Tomorrow. They also wrote them on the topic "Why is it important for a homemaker to be a mature person?"

The girl who is proclaimed New York State's Homemaker of Tomorrow will win a $1,500 Betty Crocker scholarship, and be invited to participate in an educational tour in April at General Mills' expense.

Take Honors

As a result of the mid-term examinations, twenty-one Mercians are listed on the School Merit Roll (A's, no mark below B) and 186 girls are on the Honor Roll (B's average), according to Mother Mary Flotene, principal.

Parents Invited

Parents of the sophomore class of St. Agnes High School are invited to meet with their daughters' teachers next Tuesday evening, Feb. 18 or 21, from 7 to 10 p.m. in the individual classrooms.

Sister Marie Margaret, Principal of St. Agnes, will address the parents at 8:00 p.m. on each evening.

In urging parents to make use of this opportunity, Sister stated, "Since the results of the first semester's work has just been reported, parents may find it very helpful to speak with the teachers at this time, for the best interests of their daughters."

For convenience, it is suggested that, if possible, those whose surnames begin with A come Tuesday evening; M.Z. come Friday evening.

Civil Rights

World History students of St. Agnes High School are planning a Civil Rights Assembly for the faculty and the entire student body next Tuesday afternoon, February 18, in the school auditorium.

The purpose of this assembly is to present and to explain the problem of Civil Rights as it exists in the United States of Greece. Main speakers will be Mary Dobberlin whose subject is "The Meaning of Civil Rights"; Eileen Shaughnessy, "Means of Gaining Civil Rights"; and Joan Weber, "Opposition to the Civil Rights Movement."

After this introductory information has been discussed, a group of panelists will answer questions from the audience. These panelists are Laura Zilke, Linda Curtis, Ann Vandervelde, Julie Matrini, Carolyn McDonald, Mary Ellen Smith, Patricia Shee, Carol Uebelacker, and Patricia Steiner.

Each of these sophomores has made her own independent investigation on such areas as leaders, organizations, restrictions on voting and education, views of leading political figures, public opinion, and the Civil Rights Bill before Congress," reports Sister Josanna, teacher of World History and moderator for this project.

"We are looking forward to a very informative and successful program."
