Irish Nip Penn Yan; Face Hornell Next

By WHIT JOHNSON

Aquinas Institute's basketball team, an 85-76 winner over Penn Yan Academy last Tuesday on the C.Y.O. court, faces a tough, good-shooting Hornell [illegible] School team at home tomorrow. Game time is 8:15 on the Davey Avenue hardwood with a junior varsity fray set for 6:30 p.m.

The Irish will be meeting Hornell for the second time this season. In mid-December, Hornell handed Aquinas its first loss of the year, overpowering the Irish, 85-76.

Coach Jack Kelly was pleased with his team's showing against Penn Yan as the Irish fought off the visitors down the stretch.

Aquinas broke out of a 14-14 deadlock, midway in the first quarter with a six point burst but Penn Yan fought back to even the score in the second period. At halftime Aquinas held a 43-42 margin.

The Irish, playing without standouts Jim Caverly and Jim Cataldo, both sidelined because of injuries, had to battle right down to the wire as the lead changed 2 times in the third quarter and three times in the last frame.

All eyes were on Bob Noonan in the second half as the veteran the junior topped, drove in, jumped his way to his final 17 point total, his best production of the season.

Five double-figure efforts carried the Irish triumph, with Jack Kenny tossing home 16 points, Tom Fullerton 15, Noonan 14, Jim Caverly, hampered with four fouls, 12 and Tom Slaughter and Frank Wheaton both chipped in 10 points each.

The Irish were especially strong in the rebounding and ballhawking departments, many of the steps will be needed tomorrow night if the Kelly-men are to avenge their early season loss to Hornell.

Penn Yan's Academy [illegible] Last Monday [illegible] Notre Dame of Utica won its [illegible] meeting Aquinas 42-39 on the winner's floor. Bob Keegan with four field goals and five free throws, led the Irish attack, with 12. Tom Fullerton chipped in with 10.

The Aquinas varsity now stands at 10 wins and 3 losses, with three regular season games left. After that it will be McQuaid at the War Memorial.

McQuaid Drops Tilt To Lyons

[redacted] Aquinas High's 7-game winning streak ended [illegible] Saturday at Lyons Central when a [illegible] squad swamped all over the Knights, 70-51.

A night [illegible] Aquinas had tied its season mark to 11-3 [illegible] at 20-20 midway over [illegible].

This weekend a newcomer to [illegible] McQuaid schedule—Honeoye Falls—provides the opposition in Saturday night contest at the [illegible] school.

Opposition was something that Lyons were fully expecting as they journeyed to Lyons [illegible] and they were all [illegible] in the first half by a Lyons team that had a [illegible] zone defense [illegible] in the second quarter and [illegible] Lyons' lead [illegible] 8 points at the [illegible].

Lyons, [illegible] by veteran, [illegible] 15 of its 26 field [illegible] at [illegible], [illegible] 10 of 14 [illegible] in the second half, [illegible] 70-51.

In the second half, the Knights boosted up a [illegible] offense, but their best [illegible] a string of 4 points by Toby Lovejoy and Mike [illegible] put them no closer than [illegible] Lyons countered with 6 straight of its own and kept [illegible] margin of at least 10 points the rest of the way. The Lions, a much-improved squad over the team that won by 2 points at McQuaid in November, took it in style.

Individually, Barnes was a [illegible] effort all by himself. He had 26 of his team's first [illegible] points, swishing his first 9 field goal attempts and winding up with 6 to 12, plus 16 of 19 at the foul line. Rob Pete [illegible] 18 points, [illegible] with 17. Mc[illegible] Lyons with 11 and Ken Thornton, 10.

On a similar note, Friday's preliminary game saw the Knights [illegible] 49-47 victory over the Lyons [illegible] Lyons' Jeff Bonnie [illegible] 18 points, followed by Lyons [illegible] with 14, John Stanley with 12 and Pete Wagstaff and Thompson both with 10.

McQuaid's J.V. squad managed [illegible] out of the Lyons trip with a 47-42 victory, their second over the young Lions [illegible] who have gone [illegible] the way. Against Jefferson [illegible] 47-34. It was Ray Sherbondy [illegible] and Frank Mike with 14 apiece, Mike [illegible] and Joe McQuaid enjoyed an 11-3 [illegible] advantage [illegible].

Sue Watkins Wins Again

[redacted] and takes [illegible] first place [illegible] 440 yard [illegible] in the Middle Winter Classical.

[illegible] the Western New York Middle Hills Championships at Delaware Park skating [illegible] a record crowd of [illegible] spectators. There were [illegible] skaters competing in the [illegible] several surrounding states.

The 13-year-old speed skater will travel to the Canadian Open Championship on Feb. 15 and 16 at Barrie, Ontario. Many outstanding skaters from the United States and Canada are expected at the event being held in conjunction with a Winter Carnival. She will be accompanied by her coach, George Blackburn.

A resident of Oak Creek Colonial School, Sue has rebounded well from her broken ankle this fall this year has been every bit as successful.

Also competing at Barrie this weekend will be Rosemary Caliendo of St. John the Evangelist Parish in Greece. Rosemary skated in the PeeWee Girls championships at Buffalo last weekend by winning both the 110 and 220 yard events.

Coached by her father, Tony Caliendo, a veteran speed skater, Rosemary is showing great promise as a future champion. She has won several speed skating titles this year.
