

The Havens family, John, Betty Susan, Veronica and Johannes (in stroller) prepare to leave in take the census of their parish which covers a two county area.

Visiting one of the permanent students-families in the parish, John encourages them to take active part in some of the many parish activities.

Ithacans Find Mission Life 'Honor, Privilege'

John and Betty Havens are main crop in color. During the working season as many as thirty people live in a one room shack. There is no running water, no indoor plumbing, no electricity. The Volunteers have set up a clothing center for the Ithaca area. Betty takes care of the house.

World's Fair Selects Aquinas Band

The Aquinas Institute Band, currently one of the top school marching bands in the nation, has accepted an invitation to perform on May 24 and 27 at the New York World's Fair. The announcement was made today by Rev. Pergus J. Shady, C.S.B., principal of the local high school, who received the highly lauded schoolboy musician, Aquinas is currently the American Legion Band Contest, the New York State, Princeton Association Junior Band Contest and last September it won the Governor Rockefeller trophy for first place in the New York State Fair Contest. In November the Aquinas band was one of 12 bands selected from throughout the nation to take part in Macy's Thanksgiving parade in New York City.

Sisters of Mercy Consider Modern Habit

The Sisters of Mercy are contemplating a change in their religious habit in accordance with the Church's present split of adaptation to modern needs and in response to the expressed wish of the Holy See. The Rochelle Sisters of Mercy staff, Catherine McAnulty, Mother Superior, and the Mother General, Mother Mary Blaine, are in charge of the change. The new habit is being designed by Sister Mary Blaine, who is currently in Rome. The new habit is being designed to be more practical and modern, reflecting the changes in the world. The Sisters of Mercy are currently in the process of changing their habit to a more modern style. The new habit is being designed by Sister Mary Blaine, who is currently in Rome. The new habit is being designed to be more practical and modern, reflecting the changes in the world. The Sisters of Mercy are currently in the process of changing their habit to a more modern style.

Ring Blessing Rite Lists Bishop Casey

Auxiliary Bishop Casey will bless the rings of the Knights of Columbus at the Cathedral School Hall. The blessing of the rings is part of the fourth conference in the series.

Catholic Book Week Planned Feb. 23-29

Catholic schools and parishes throughout Rochester and the U.S. will be marking Feb. 23-29 as Catholic Book Week, part of the annual observance of February as Catholic Press Month. The theme for the 24th annual observance will be "Read and Unite Our Changing World." Rev. John R. Whitley, C.S.B., Director of Aquinas Institute, is Chairman of local activities. National honorary chairman is Archbishop John J. Deardoff of Detroit. National co-sponsoring groups are the Catholic Press Assn., National Council of Catholic Men, National Council of Catholic Women and the National Office for Decent Literature. According to Father Whitley, colorful posters have been mailed to area elementary schools to highlight the week.

John Baynes Rewarded By CWV

Monroe County Chapter, Catholic War Veterans, presented their Annual Catholic Laymen of the Year award to John Baynes, 224 West Avenue, Rochester, New York, at the annual Mass and Breakfast on Monday morning, Feb. 15, at St. Jerome's Church. In the presentation Baynes was cited for his active work with youth in the area above that called for by his job, which is that of coach at St. Roch's High School. GUEST SPEAKER at the breakfast which was held at the County House in East Rochester, was Mayor of Rochester, James J. Lamm. Past Vice Commander of the Department of New York, James McBride from Long Island addressed the group at 112 Danbroke with his wife, Catherine. Mrs. County Commander and Mrs. of Rochester, Mrs. Baynes, and their son, John, were also present. Baynes' service has been as a graduate of the U.S. Army, he is presently active in many community organizations. Baynes attended the...

COLUMBIA BANKING, SAVINGS and LOAN ASSOCIATION definitive UPSTATE NEW YORK'S FASTEST GROWING SAVINGS INSTITUTION