

The Havens family, John, Betty Susan, Veronica and Johannes (in stroller) prepare to leave in take the census of their parish which covers a two county area. Visiting one of the permanent student-families in the parish, John encourages them to take active part in some of the many parish activities.

Ithacans Find Mission Life 'Honor, Privilege'

John and Betty Havens are main crop in color. During the working season as many as thirty people live in a one room house. There is no running water, no indoor plumbing. The house is a simple structure, built by the Havens family. The Havens family is a well-known one in the area, and their mission work is highly regarded.

World's Fair Selects Aquinas Band

The Aquinas Institute Band, currently one of the top school marching bands in the nation, has accepted an invitation to perform on May 24 and 27 at the New York World's Fair. The announcement was made today by Rev. Pergus J. Shady, C.S.B., principal of the local high school, who received the invitation from the American Legion Band Council, the New York State Fair Association and the World's Fair. The band will be led by conductor John J. Whitley.

Sisters of Mercy Consider Modern Habit

The Sisters of Mercy are contemplating a change in their religious habit in accordance with the Church's present adaptation to modern needs. The change is being considered by the Mother General, Mother Mary Bille, who is currently in New York City. The Sisters of Mercy are a well-known religious order, and their habit is a symbol of their faith.

Ring Blessing Rite Lists Bishop Casey

Auxiliary Bishop Casey will bless the rings of the Knights of Columbus at the Cathedral School Hall. The blessing of the rings is a traditional rite, and it is a sign of the Knights' commitment to their faith and to their community. Bishop Casey is a well-known figure in the Catholic Church, and his blessing is highly respected.

John Baynes Rewarded By CWV

Monroe County Chapter, Catholic War Veterans, presented John Baynes with a certificate of appreciation for his service. Baynes is a well-known figure in the community, and his service has been highly valued. The CWV is a well-known organization, and its members are dedicated to serving their community.

Catholic Book Week Planned Feb. 23-29

Catholic schools and parishes throughout Rochester and the area will be marking Feb. 23-29 as Catholic Book Week. The week is a time for Catholics to read and to learn about their faith. It is a great opportunity for Catholics to deepen their understanding of their religion and to share it with others.

Advertisement for Columbia Banking, Saving and Loan Association. The ad features a large, stylized graphic of a building or structure, possibly representing the association's headquarters. The text is arranged around the graphic, providing information about the association's services and its commitment to the community. The ad is designed to be eye-catching and informative.

Advertisement for Columbia Banking, Saving and Loan Association. This ad is a continuation of the one on the left, providing more details about the association's services and its commitment to the community. It includes information about the association's history and its role in the local economy.