Vienna Symphony Set At Eastman

One of Europe's most distinguished symphonic ensembles, the Vienna Symphony Orchestra, will perform in Rochester on Monday, March 2, at the Eastman Theatre.

This is the orchestra's first American tour. The Vienna Symphony will visit the principal cities of the United States and Canada during its 5-week tour in North America.

The orchestra, to be led by its brilliant young conductor Wolfgang Sawallisch, will perform Mozart's Symphony No. 41 (Jupiter), and Beethoven's Symphony No. 3.

Tickets for the Vienna Symphony Rochester concert are available at the Eastman Theatre box office.

Music Theatre Lists 'Little Mary Sunshine'

When the Nazareth College Alumnae Association presents the Rochester Music Theatre production of "Little Mary Sunshine" on Feb. 29 and March 1, it will be a homecoming for four members of the company.

This is the group that offered "The Music Man" last fall at the Eastman Theatre. The staff for this more intimate type of theater is almost the same.

Mary's maid is Nancy Twinkle, who is being pursued by Corporal Billy Jester. Two guests at the inn are Adam Lieberlich, an ex-opera singer from Vienna, and General Fairfax, a retired Army officer.

Mrs. Hanlon, Little Mary, is presently a vocal music teacher at Victor Central School. She starred in "The Boy Friend" for Music Theatre, and was also in "The Music Man."

Capt. "Big Jim" will be played by Harold Reitz, last seen as Prince Dauntless in last season's New Year's Eve production "Once Upon A Mattress" at the Auditorium Theatre.

Miss Heberger plays the maid, and Richard Mancini, her corporal. The character roles go to Cyndie Grantham and Robert "Ladies" role, played by Doree Hill, Earl Kage and Bruce Lee Norbut.

Miss Josephine Lombardo, general chairman, has announced that tickets for both performances are now available through the alumnae, or will be sold at the door. Tickets are $2, each with proceeds going towards the proposed fine arts building—W.K.
