

Courier Editor To Receive National Theatre Award

Monsignor John S. Randall, pastor of Immaculate Conception Church, Rochester, and Managing Editor of the Catholic Courier Journal, will receive the highest award of the National Catholic Theatre Conference (Commander to the Order of St. Cecilia) at a Theatre Day luncheon on Saturday, March 4, at Nazareth Academy.

AUXILIARY BISHOP CAREY will present the award and a tribute will be given by Sister Helen Daniels, president of Nazareth College.

Over twenty-five years ago, Monsignor Randall launched a Rochester Chapter of the New York Blackfriars Guild which attracted such stars as Bert Loyal, Helen Madison and Alphonso D'Amico to come to Rochester and perform with local actors.

In 1949, Monsignor Randall produced Ursula Knight's "Our Lady of Fatima" which played to capacity audiences for a two week run, under the sponsorship of the Holy Name Society. Subsequent productions of "City of Kings," "The Dark Hours," and "The Cardinals" met with equal success.

Nationally known for ability in financial planning, Monsignor Randall directed fund raising drives in behalf of the Catholic University of America, Nazareth College, St. Mary's Hospital, St. Andrew's Seminary, St. John Fisher College, McCord Jesuit High School, St. Agnes High School, Cardinal Mooney High School and Bishop Kearney High School.

A past president of the Catholic News Association, he is a former Diocesan Director of the Propagation of the Faith.

AWARD LUNCHEON will highlight the Ninth Annual Theatre Day of the Rochester Unit of the National Catholic Theatre Conference. Members include drama departments of colleges and high schools, community and children's theatres of the Diocese.

The Theatre Day program will offer play productions, workshops, lectures and meetings, under the chairmanship of Sister M. St. Gertrude, S.S.J.

Mother Superior of Nazareth Academy will be the guest of honor at the final selection of sites for a South American mission.

Mother Agnes Cecilia and Sister Florentine will arrive in Rio de Janeiro Saturday morning. They will then spend several months with Sister Rose Allyn in the southern area of Brazil which covers an area larger than New York State. It will be the first mission established outside the United States by the Sisters of St. Joseph and the first South American mission of the Diocese's religious group. The mission will have facilities for education and social work.

The mission will be established with the approval of Bishop Kearney somewhere in the southern section of Brazil which covers an area larger than New York State. It will be the first mission established outside the United States by the Sisters of St. Joseph and the first South American mission of the Diocese's religious group. The mission will have facilities for education and social work.

Flying down to Rio, Mother Agnes Cecilia and Sister Florentine will come close to two Brazilian cities which will make them feel "at home."

At the Brazil coastline they will pass over the village of Nazareth, a favorite place-name of the Rochester Sisters of St. Joseph to which they have dedicated their Motherhouse, College, Academy and Cadet School.

When they view the site for the new mission in the southern area of Brazil, Reverend Mother and Sister will find themselves very close to the town of St. Joseph (St. Jose) patron saint of their Order.

Novena of Grace to be Held

Precious Blood, and Wednesday, March 11, "Pietà."

THE NINE DAYS devotion originated with an apparition of St. Francis Xavier made in 1633, eighty years after his death, promising health to the dying Jesuit Father Maritelli.

Special indulgences were originally granted for the novena held at Lisbon, Portugal, by Pope Alexander VII in the 17th century. The indulgence is now granted to the novena of St. Francis Xavier.

The saint assured him that all who would earnestly ask his intercession with God for nine days in honor of his excommunication would infallibly experience the effects of his great power in heaven and would receive whatever they asked for in this world.
