Top Honors
Two Catholic high schools took top honors in the Rochester Area Debate League which wound up this year's activities with final rounds at Aquinas Institute last Saturday, Feb. 22. Aquinas' junior-varsity squad captured the first place trophy in their divisions with 27 wins and 5 losses over the four month span of activity. Formosa Academy of St. Monica parish and Martin Drilling and Gerard Duffy, both of Holy Rosary parish, made up the winning team. All are sophomores at Aquinas, and all are academic leaders of their class as of recent January examinations.

Parents' Weekend Saturday and Sunday, March 7 and 8, from 9 to 10 p.m. Junior and seniors will entertain their mothers at a Mother-Daughter dinner party Saturday evening. Entertainment will be supplied by the students. Freshmen and sophomores will entertain their fathers at a dinner-dance for Dad's Sunday evening. Music will be supplied by the Roney Band. Committees heads are as follows: Jo Ann Gardina and Mary Jo Whalen, decorations; Katherine Keedy and Sheila McKay, special arrangements; Ruth Ann Unger, tickets; Kathleen Johnson, checking; Veronica Miller and Julie Mahar, publicity; and Maureen Ferron, clean-up. Tickets are on sale in the homerooms. They may be obtained from the counsellors.

Glee Club
Glee Clubbers from Cardinal Mooney proved their civic loyalty by performing at the Greece Exposition last Saturday at the Ridgecrest Plaza. Patriotic songs, as well as a few novelty numbers, were included in the program under the direction of Sister Mary Edwina. "Plymouth Rock" and "My Bonnie" were sung in varying arrangements. Elaine Kobalik joined in "Where in the World But in America." Brother Edward Boyer, C.S.C., accompanied the Glee Club.

Parent Bulletin
The third issue of the SAH Parent Bulletin, St. Agnes High School's newest venture in home-school relations, will be distributed next Monday, March 2. The main topic discussed this month is the role of parents in aiding their children in that all-important decision concerning the future. Other items of school community interest include notes on the coming district for St. Agnes High School students, the feast of St. Joseph, the Mothers' Club Fashion Show and their rummage sale, the magazine drive, the school-testing program for March, cafeteria menus, Career-Conference Day and a special note to freshmen parents.

Scholastically they also rank in the top ten of the whole school with averages over 90 per cent; they also hold full tuition scholarships to Aquinas, Victor Central and Eastgate were second and third place winners respectively in this division. The sophomore squad from Cardinal Mooney High School emerged the victor in the novice division in its very first year of debating at that school with a record of 25 wins and 7 losses. The most recent was made up of Mary Breyer and Peggy Goelan, both of St. John's parish, Greece and John Vermeire of St. Lawrence parish and David Benin of St. Helen's parish.

JFK Tribute
To honor the memory of the late President John F. Kennedy the Student Council of Nazareth Academy will present a tribute assembly in the school auditorium Feb. 28. Jo Anne Gardina is chairman of a script writing committee. The committee will feature various aspects of the former president's life and work. The chairman said that it will be a unique assembly for a unique man.

Career Day
Career-Conference Day for the junior and senior classes at St. Agnes High School on Thursday, March 5. Keynote speaker will be Miss Ann Turula, dean of girls at John Marshall High School, in her address, "Miss Turula will challenge these young women of tomorrow to juxtapose more meaningful concepts of careers and their own personal futures that they may approach this future with a more realistic view." Specialists in seven different areas will then conduct two separate half-hour sessions consisting of an address followed by a question-and-answer period. Thus each girl may select the two types of work in which she is most interested.

Parents' Nights
Parents of the freshmen students of St. Agnes High School are invited to meet their daughters' teachers this Monday and Wednesday evenings, March 2 and 4, from 7 to 10, in the classroom. Sister Marie Margaret, principal of St. Agnes, will address the parents each evening at 8. For convenience, it is suggested that those parents whose surnames begin with the letters A-L come Monday evening, M-Z, Wednesday evening.

Besides debating they are all honor students and participate in various other activities at the Maiden Lane school. Their trophy was hard won considering closely challenging Aquinas and Brondquoit who finished second and third respectively. Awards were presented at a banquet held at Schindler's on St. Paul St. which some 125 students and coaches attended. Vincent Toney, Greek and Latin teacher and supervisor of the Board of Supervisors presented the novice trophies while Robert Gulgley, Wheatland Supervisor and minority leader of the Board of Supervisors presented the junior-varsity trophies.

Book Fair
The Sodality of Our Lady at Nazareth Academy will hold a Book Fair in the social room of the school from March 8 to 18. The slogan of the fair will be "Good Reading Is the Key to Good Living." Among the selections will be many spiritual books suitable for retreat reading.

Senior Pictures
Members of the Class of '65 of St. Agnes High School will vote next week for the photographer whom they wish to take their senior pictures. Displays by photographers interested in taking these pictures will be exhibited during the photo-night.

Spaghetti Supper
Twenty-five Cardinal Mooney students attended the spaghetti supper in the school cafeteria. The supper was under the chairmanship of Mrs. Norman Jacobs. A financial and social success, the proceeds will augment the Guaranty Tuition Fund set up by the Women's Guild. This fund provides security for tuition payment in the event of the death of a husband or a daughter in a school.

Guest Speaker
Brother James Madigan, principal of Cardinal Mooney High School, was guest speaker at the Western New York Catholic Librarians Conference held in Batavia on Sunday. About 300 parents and teachers were in the audience. Using the Catholic Book Week theme, "Read and Unite Our Changing World," Brother developed the idea that without a book, man becomes a rebel. "Books deter a man from rebelling against God, against society, against himself."

Student Council
Yvesnick Miller, Nazareth Academy, Student Council president, discusses Parents' Weekend plans with chairman, Maureen Ferron and Jo Ann Gardina.

Student Panel
Student panelists answered their parents' questions at a unique meeting of the Women's Guild Monday night. Most of the queries dealt with dating and curfew. Speaking for the girls were Margaret Goelling, Susan Dufford and Mary Breyer. Nicholas Furbondo, David Benin and George Shayer represented the boys. Answers to submitted written questions were prepared during the business portion of the meeting.
