

Diocesan Sodalities Sponsor Conference Day

Annual Sodality Conference Day, sponsored by the Rochester Diocesan Sodality Federation, will be held Sunday, March 8, at Bishop Kearney High School.

Welcome will be given by the Rev. William Appann, chaplain of Bishop Kearney High School and Sodality, and the Rev. Michael Volpe, director of the Diocesan Sodality Federation.

MICHAEL McCLOSKEY, sodality of the "Swordsmen Sodality," Scranton University, Scranton, Pa., will give the keynote address, using the theme of the Conference Day — "The Sodalists' Response, The World Must Be One."

A native of Arlington, Va., McCloskey is a student in the honors program at the University, active in the ROTC and many other school activities. He also works with the Large Interracial Council and the NAACP Youth Council.

Eligible Seminars beginning at 11 a.m. for Junior, Senior

Sodalists will include the following teachers and subjects: New Horizons in the Liturgy, Rev. Henry Atwell; God's Provisions for the Layman, Michael McCloskey; Why Spiritual Direction? Sister M. Maureen, R.S.M.; God Given Human Rights, Herman Wals; Force and Influence — Modern Communion, Edward Meath.

Freshman and Sophomore Seminars include: Acquires Taste for School? Sister James, S.S.J.; Sodality Committee to Christ Through Mary, Rev. John Ware, C.S.B.; The Mystery of the Church — Curia, Rev. James Malone, S.J.; Organizational Approach to the Needs of Youth, Rev. William Amann.

Miss will be offered and Holy Communion distributed at 12 noon. Father Henry Atwell will be commentator. Dinner will be held for Junior, Senior and adults at 12:45 p.m. and for Freshmen and Sophomores at 1:30 p.m.

Afternoon Seminars for Freshmen and Sophomores beginning at 1:45 will include: God's Provisions for the Laymen, Michael McCloskey; The Christian Youth's Attitude Toward Problem People and Delinquency, Mark Toohy; Reaching and Receiving, Father Sedwilly, Rev. John Skvorak; The Christian Way of Recreating, Howard Meath.

Junior and Senior Seminars beginning at 1:30 p.m. include: Spirituality of the Christian, Rev. Charles Curran; Role of the Witnessing to Christ, Sister M. Petrus, R.S.M.; The Christian Vocation, Rev. Louis Hohmann; Peace in Heart and Home, Rev. William Charbonneau; Witnesses of the Word on Secular Grounds, Rev. Michael Daly.

A summary of the Sodality Conference Day will be given by Michael McCloskey at 2:30 p.m., followed by Bible Devotion under the direction of Rev. Benedict Khmann.

Conference will close with Benediction at 3:30 p.m.

Morning adult session will be Adult Sodality Interchange, Rev. Edward K. Stenmark; Afternoon, The Bible and the Layman, Rev. Joseph P. Brennan.

Junior and Senior Seminars beginning at 1:30 p.m. include: Spirituality of the Christian, Rev. Charles Curran; Role of the Witnessing to Christ, Sister M. Petrus, R.S.M.; The Christian Vocation, Rev. Louis Hohmann; Peace in Heart and Home, Rev. William Charbonneau; Witnesses of the Word on Secular Grounds, Rev. Michael Daly.

A summary of the Sodality Conference Day will be given by Michael McCloskey at 2:30 p.m., followed by Bible Devotion under the direction of Rev. Benedict Khmann.

Conference will close with Benediction at 3:30 p.m.

MICHAEL McCLOSKEY

Legion Of Mary Conclave Stated In Southern Tier

The Rev. Edward J. Reynolds, spiritual director of the New York City Legions of the Legion of Mary, will be the guest speaker at the annual gathering of active and auxiliary members on Sunday, March 8.

This gathering of hundreds of members will take place this year in St. Patrick's Church, Elmira, beginning at 4 p.m. The ceremony is known as the "Acies" and consists in the solemn expression of union and dependence on Our Lady in the work of helping and saving souls.

"We salute the auxiliary members of the Legion of Mary," writes Bishop Casey, "the men and women who pray daily for the success of the work of the active Legionaries. No one except God can estimate the power of these prayers; however, much of the success of the praesidia is due to the backing they have received from the auxiliary prayers."

Every active and auxiliary member is urged to attend. Refreshments will be served afterwards in St. Patrick's beautiful hall. The Elmira Curia of the Legion of Mary is most grateful to the pastor of St. Patrick's, Rev. John S. Hayes, for inviting the members to his church and for making available the use of the parish hall.

Flord C. Nodine, president of the Elmira Curia, reminds the members of the Legions of the Handbook: "It is necessary to stress the importance of attendance on the part of every member. . . . It is manifest that any Legionaries who can attend, and yet fail to do so, have little or none of the spirit of the Legion in them."

At the present time, there are 19 praesidia attached to the Elmira Curia. Anyone who is interested in active membership may call any of the parish offices.

To Ordain 3 Capuchins On Saturday

General — Bishop Kearney will preside at the ordination of three Capuchin priests on Saturday, March 7, at 10 a.m. in St. Francis de Sales Church.

The three new priests are: Father Marcellus Lotta of Watford, Conn.; Alexander Davis of Brooklyn, N.Y.; and Harold Mainard of Baltimore, Md.

All are members of the Capuchin-Franciscan community at Immaculate Heart of Mary Seminary, Geneva, where they will complete their theological studies in June.

THEY RECEIVED the Capuchin habit as novices at Our Lady of Angels Monastery, Staunton, Va., after a year of novitiate, the three young clerics received first vows and began three years of philosophy at St. Lawrence Monastery, Beacon, N.Y.

Solemn vows were made in 1960 and theology studies begun at Capuchin College, Washington. The next year they came to the Geneva Seminary.

25 Years Ago

(From the files of the Catholic Courier, March 8, 1939.)

Bishop Kearney who met and conferred with Cardinal Pacelli, newly elected as Pope Pius XII, on four occasions when the former Papal Secretary of State visited America in 1938 was to celebrate Pontifical Mass to mark the Pope's Coronation, March 12.

They were fulfilling their mission in countering Godless philosophy in modern times as they lived up to their "vocations" as members of the "Nocturnal Adoration Society," men who attended a breakfast in Powers Hotel were told.

Speakers were Bishop Kearney, Rev. John J. Healey, C.S.S.R. of Boston and Rev. Leo G. Mooney, spiritual director of the local group.

Arrangements were being made for staging in Lent for the first time in Rochester, America's Passion Play at the Auditorium Theater, East Main St.

SODALITY CONFERENCE DAY for March 8 at Bishop Kearney High School is planned by the Rev. John Skvorak, Assistant Diocesan Sodality Director; Michael Critelli of Kearney High, and Mary Wuest of Nazareth.

Will the English prayers at Mass be the same all over the United States?

Will every parish in our Diocese follow the same pattern of congregational prayer?

When will the changes in the liturgy voted through by the Vatican Council go into effect locally?

These are some of the questions the Rochester Diocesan Commission on Liturgy and Music will soon answer.

The Rochester Diocese — compared to many other dioceses in the United States — has a head start on getting the new liturgical changes.

These other dioceses are currently organizing liturgy committees — this Diocese has had its committee since 1910.

NOW HEADED by Bishop Kearney and Monsignor Wilfred T. Craig, rector of St. Bernard's Seminary, the commission includes Monsignors John E. Maney, John F. Duffy, George Council and Fathers Benedict Ehrman, Charles J. McCarthy and Robert Smith.

Originally set up following Pope St. Pius X's 1903 directive to promote congregational participation in Church prayer, particularly by congregational singing, the Diocesan Liturgy Commission made the Rochester area nationally noted for its prompt action. The first members were the late Rev. Fathers John Petter, Mathias Kazgathcz, J. Emil Gelfel, James J. Gibbons, Andrew Meahan and Rt. Rev. Msgr. John F. Goggin, rector emeritus of St. Bernard's Seminary.

Pope Pius XII on the eve of his death in 1958 repeated his predecessor's call for the people to take an active part in Church rites. Accepting the fact that most Catholics attend Low Masses, the Pontiff — while maintaining the goal of congregational chanting Masses — asked for an end to the silent Masses, reorganized the near fifty year old Music Commission giving it its present name Liturgy and Music Commission.

The Vatican Council, in its historic decree calling for a general revision of the Catholic Church's ritual ways of worship, ordered every diocese to set up a committee to aid its bishop in instructing the people in their parts of the services.

Most of the 132 parishes of the Rochester Diocese already have a program of participation by the people — ranging from following the simple Latin responses to full scale saying of the prayers such as the Gloria, Credo, Pater Noster etc. with the priest.

Introduction of English in place of Latin later this year, following a meeting next month of the nation's bishops, will simplify attaining the goal voiced at the dawn of this century, repeated fifty years later and now made mandatory by the present Pope and the world's Catholic bishops, a goal already in large measure achieved in the Rochester Diocese.

Alumnae Plan Silver Tea

Coming — Plans for a silver tea April 19 were discussed at nine members of the Southern Tier Chapter, Nazareth College Alumnae Association, at the home of Mrs. William McCarthy Jr., at 7 Wilson St.

MRS. HARRY REIDY of Elmira, tea chairman, reported that Sister Eva Marie of Nazareth College faculty will show slides of the college campus while entertainment will be provided by a fine arts student from the college's music department.

Scene of the tea will be the Dupuy Memorial Nurses' Home at St. Joseph's Hospital, Elmira.

Mrs. Robert Golden, president, conducted the meeting and will be hostess for the unit's next regular meeting April 19 at her home in Elmira. The Rev. John Roach, unit moderator, will discuss "Indulgences" at that session.

Mission Slides To Be Shown

Members of the Rosary and Sacred Heart Society of St. Elizabeth's, Elmira, will meet Monday, March 8, at 7:30 p.m. in the school.

Sister M. Cornelius of Notre Dame High School will show slides on the missions in Africa following the 7 o'clock recitation of the Rosary and Benediction in the church by the Rev. Leonard P. Kujawski.

At this time the ladies are requested to bring their plastic bags and rolled bandages made at home from used sheets for the medical missions. In the paper colony, plastic bags are used for disposal of bandages and distribution of dry foods.

Committee chairman for the missions are Mrs. Vincent Rubin, Mrs. Edward Lepkowski and Mrs. Anna Marie Lopus.

Notre Dame Favored Opening Set For Court Tourney

Upwards of 5000 fans are expected to be in the stands at the War Memorial tomorrow night when Aquinas Institute and McQuaid Jesuit High clash in the opener of the Sixth Annual Diocesan Basketball Tournament. Game time for the ninth meeting of the two cross-town rivals is 8 p.m., but a good share of the crowd will be on hand much earlier than that to watch the newest diocesan high schools, Cardinal Mooney and Bishop Kearney, do battle in a 6:30 p.m. non-tourney preliminary.

On Sunday, the tournament spotlights shift to Geneva and Auburn, where the other four game, while Padua High of Watkins Glen will take on DeSales of Geneva in a 7 p.m. game at Geneva.

McQUAID (14-1) holds an early season victory over Aquinas (15-7) and is favored to emerge in the tournament. But this has become a game where predictions are meaningless since the shots begin flying, and the high-scoring Irish will be out to prove it. Aquinas, with a 72-62 offense-defense record, compares favorably with McQuaid's 71-69. Comparative scores against common foes like Edison and Franklin also offer little choice, the Irish splitting a pair of tight decisions while McQuaid was a narrow winner both times.

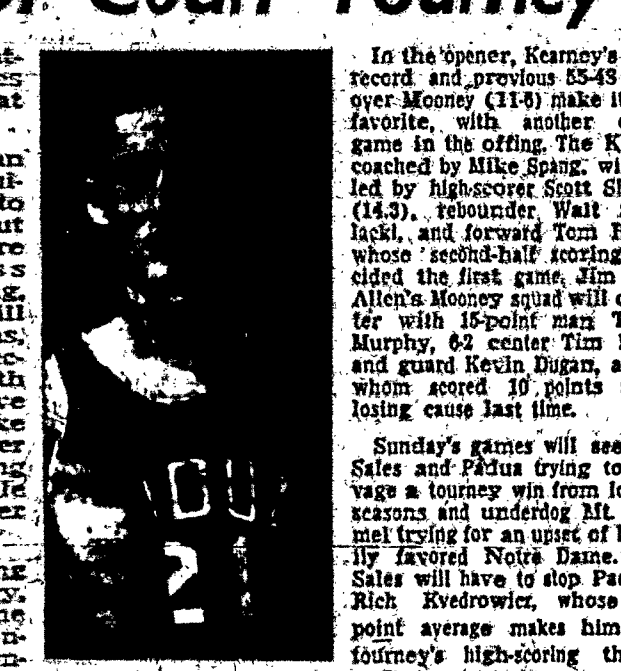

The Knights' highest-scoring squad in the school's history, will start center Sam Ingocci and four juniors — Tony Leonardo, Mike Spiegel, Lance Corrao and Bob Brady.

AQUINAS will counter with senior Tom Pestorius, its 7-foot center, junior forward Mike Corvelli and Bob Corrao, backcourt center Frank Yonker and either Don Rozzelli, or junior Jim Capone.

Leonardo (15-6) and Pestorius (15-1) are the team's top scorers, but Corvelli (12-2), Corrao (13-3) and Ingocci (11-8) are all liable to break loose on a given night.

Aquinas, well-treated after a two-week layoff, will be relying on its height advantage and speed to offset the formidable edge held by McQuaid's well-balanced squad. In the December game of the series (in which Aquinas holds a 53 edge) the Irish were on their way to a one-sided loss before they rallied to finish only 9 points down. Coach Jack Kelly hopes that they'll pick up right where they left off that memorable contenders engage in quarterfinal competition. Notre Dame of Elmira, a leading contender for the title being defended by Aquinas, will be at Auburn against Mt. Carmel in a 2 p.m.

RICH KUEDROWICZ Padua

point last quarter, McQuaid's Ken Jones prefers to think about the next threat, when his Knights built a 21-point lead.

Conring Council Women Elect Mrs. Edward Kerwan

Coming — Mrs. Edward Kerwan of 63 Ellicott St., a member of St. Vincent de Paul's Parish was elected president of Conring Council, National Council of Catholic Women, at a meeting held in St. Patrick's School hall.

Elected with Mrs. Kerwan were Mrs. John Kostolansky of St. Patrick's Parish, vice president; Mrs. Marion Daley of St. Mary's Parish, secretary; Mrs. Richard Quigley of the Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish, treasurer and Mrs. Arthur Scheer of St. Patrick's Parish, director-at-large.

Serving on the nominating committee were Mrs. Stanley Klanning, chairman; Mrs. Paul Ambrosini, Mrs. Fred Gorman and Mrs. Robert Belwanger.

Miss Adeline Vietz, a student at East High School, who recently spent seven months with her brother and family at Poznan, Colombia and returned a school thorn, told of her experiences while in that country. These included customs, educational procedures and everyday happenings. The Rev. William Thomas, moderator, introduced Miss Vietz.

Mrs. Edward Griffin, retiring president, conducted the meeting and announced installation of officers will be April 23 at St. Mary's School hall. A spring tea will follow. Also at this time, girls having received the Marjori Award in Girl Scouting will be guests.

Forty Hours

Devotions of the Forty Hours will be conducted in the following churches of the Diocese:

Sunday, March 8 — St. Bridget, St. Monica, Rochester; St. Stephen, Geneva; St. Michael, Newark.

FOR THE BRIDE . . .

Varden Studio Bridal Plan

• 2 Bridal Gossies for the newspapers . . . $58.50

• Photographer all day

• 40-50 candid proofs to choose from

• Fifteen 8-10 photographs in white wedding album

• One 11x14 formal portrait of Bride

"If You Are Interested in Color Ask About our 'Living Color Package Plan'"

Varden Studio

316 W. Water St.
RE 2-7481
ELMIRA, N.Y.

Open Daily to 10 P.M.
Friday Evenings to 8 P.M.

RUGS - CARPET

CHOOSE FROM ALEXANDER SMITH, BIGELOW BARWICK, AND CABIN CRAFTS

SHOP AT HOME

• Trained carpet selector will call on you with a complete selection of samples from which to choose. No obligation.

Elmira RUG CO.

OPEN DAILY to 10 P.M.

Dial RE 2-9982

135 W. GRAY ST.

"Next to the Mark Twain Hotel"

My whiskey

Most often of all, these words reflect warmly a peace and trust in 7 Crown — the brand that has won more friends for more years than any other whiskey in the world. Say Seagram's and be Seagram's.

IMPORTED

WINE

WE HAVE THE Great Entertainer for your party $6.19 Full Qt.

ONE-HA WINES AVAILABLE IMPORTED POLISH WINES & VODKA

Jerry's Liquor Store

Jeremiah F. Hourihan, Prop.

1009 COLLEGE AVE. — ELMIRA — RE 2-0420

WE DELIVER