GUEST SPEAKERS at Career Club in Horseheads are Mrs. David Davin of St. Mary's School faculty, Sister Magdalen of Nazareth College and Sister Mary Cordis, club director.

Career Club Launched
At St. Mary's Horseheads

Sunday evening, March 1, marked the beginning of a series of meetings, held at St. Mary's School, Horseheads. The audience included girls of high school and college age. The purpose of these meetings is to present, triweekly, many of the careers successfully attempted by women.

SUNDAY NIGHT'S speakers included the Rev. Francis J. Reilly, pastor of St. Mary's Church, Sister Mary Cordis of the Sisters of St. Joseph, director of the club and on the faculty of St. Mary's, Sister Magdalen of the Sisters of St. Joseph, head of the art department of Nazareth College in Rochester, and Mrs. David Davin, a graduate of Nazareth College presently on the faculty of St. Mary's School. Rev. Roger Switzer, director of the Youth Club was not able to be present.

Both Sister Magdalen and Mrs. Davin presented samples of their own productions. Sister Magdalen showed slides of the Stations of the Cross used as part of her thesis in obtaining her Master of Fine Arts degree at Notre Dame University. They pointed out the many opportunities open to girls in the field of art.

Sister Mary Cordis explained the long range plans of the club. Each week the girls will meet Sister and actually engage
