

St. Anne This Sunday

The Rev. Mr. William J. Hughes, pastor of St. Anne's Church, will celebrate Mass at 8 o'clock and 10 o'clock. The 10 o'clock Mass will be the Vigil for the dead. The church is open from 9 o'clock to 11 o'clock. The church is located at 100 Lincoln St., Rochester, N.Y.

Aquinas Announces Grants

A bulletin announcing the winners of the 1954 Aquinas awards for the year 1953 was announced today by Rev. William J. Hughes, pastor of St. Anne's Church, 100 Lincoln St., Rochester, N.Y. The awards are given to students of the local Catholic high schools on the basis of competitive scholarship examinations. The winners are: Mr. and Mrs. Julian Blumstein, son of 155 Lincoln St., a student of St. Joseph's school; Lynn Wozniak and Edmund Wozniak, students of Holy Cross school; Barry DeFond of Alport St., a student of Holy Cross school; and Albert Kette, 228 Eastman Ave., a student of Sacred Heart school. A fourth scholarship for full tuition has been won by Kevin J. DeFond, son of Mr. and Mrs. Barry DeFond of Alport St., a student of Holy Cross school, placed first in the recent Aquinas Forensic Scholarship Competition, to qualify for his grant. Partial scholarships were won by James Geogier, 325 Grand St., St. Joseph's school; Thomas Leckinger, 102 Alpha St., Holy Cross school; Steven Golding, 114 Primrose St., Sacred Heart school; and Albert Kette, 228 Eastman Ave., Sacred Heart school. Other full tuition winners are: Earl Wozniak, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Wozniak of 58 Lake View Park, a student at Holy Cross school; and Jurij Kushtner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Julian Blumstein, son of 155 Lincoln St., a student of St. Joseph's school. The Aquinas awards are given to students of the local Catholic high schools on the basis of competitive scholarship examinations. The winners are: Mr. and Mrs. Julian Blumstein, son of 155 Lincoln St., a student of St. Joseph's school; Lynn Wozniak and Edmund Wozniak, students of Holy Cross school; Barry DeFond of Alport St., a student of Holy Cross school; and Albert Kette, 228 Eastman Ave., a student of Sacred Heart school. A fourth scholarship for full tuition has been won by Kevin J. DeFond, son of Mr. and Mrs. Barry DeFond of Alport St., a student of Holy Cross school, placed first in the recent Aquinas Forensic Scholarship Competition, to qualify for his grant. Partial scholarships were won by James Geogier, 325 Grand St., St. Joseph's school; Thomas Leckinger, 102 Alpha St., Holy Cross school; Steven Golding, 114 Primrose St., Sacred Heart school; and Albert Kette, 228 Eastman Ave., Sacred Heart school. Other full tuition winners are: Earl Wozniak, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Wozniak of 58 Lake View Park, a student at Holy Cross school; and Jurij Kushtner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Julian Blumstein, son of 155 Lincoln St., a student of St. Joseph's school.

Panel of Three On Race Topic

A priest, a doctor and a university professor will be panel members at a meeting of the Rochester Catholic Interracial Council at Blessed Sacrament parish hall Wednesday, March 18, at 8 p.m. The panelists are: Rev. John J. Conboy, pastor of St. Patrick's Church; Dr. John J. Conboy, professor of psychology at the University of Rochester; and Dr. John J. Conboy, professor of psychology at the University of Rochester. The meeting will be held at 115 Buffalo Road, St. Patrick's parish hall, Wednesday, March 18, at 8 p.m.

NAS Launched in Canandaigua

Formation of the newest National Adoration Center at St. Mary's Church here took place Saturday night, March 7, at 10 p.m. Rev. Albert J. Conroy, pastor of St. Mary's Church, was assisted in inaugurating the adoration for men by leaders of the Rochester Society. Forty-two men made their first hour at St. Mary's. From this group an organization will be built in April, two hours of adoration are scheduled.

Earlier Courier, Earlier Deadline

Your Courier Journal will arrive a day earlier beginning in April. Delivery date will be Thursday each week, instead of Friday. Deadline for all news items will also move up a day, to Wednesday. Pictures of organizations planning an event should be taken ten days prior to publication date. Arrangements, therefore, should be made about two weeks before the picture is to appear.

Symbol of Holy Week

MATTHEW TEMPLE, eighth grader at St. Margaret Mary School, was asked to draw a picture expressing his feelings about Holy Week. In explaining his drawing, he said that the Chalice and Host represent the host of the Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist on Holy Thursday, the sign is a symbol of the Holy Week, and the lily tells of the joy of Easter. Matthew's drawing is titled "A Holy Week Celebration". Matthew, 13, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Temple, 73 Northfield Road, Irondequoit.

St. Patrick's Day Festivities Set

Irish societies of Rochester are planning religious observances and festivities to mark the Feast of St. Patrick, March 17. The Memorial Mass in honor of the late President John F. Kennedy will be celebrated at 11:15 a.m. at St. Patrick's Church, 115 Buffalo Road, on Sunday, March 14. The Knights of Equity and the Daughters of Erin will also observe the feast. The Mass in St. Patrick's Church will be celebrated at 11:15 a.m. on Sunday, March 14. The Knights of Equity and the Daughters of Erin will also observe the feast. The Mass in St. Patrick's Church will be celebrated at 11:15 a.m. on Sunday, March 14. The Knights of Equity and the Daughters of Erin will also observe the feast.

Legion of Mary Rites Sunday

Nearly one thousand Legion of Mary members will renew their consecration to the Blessed Virgin Mary and pledge another year of apostolic action at an "aces" ceremony in St. Margaret's Church, Irondequoit, Sunday, March 15, at 3 p.m. The Legion members and 20,000 auxiliary members will participate in the ceremony. The "aces" ceremony is a Latin word for an army drawn up in formation. It was held last Sunday at St. Patrick's Church here.

Sodalists at Conference

Stephen Galloos, Mooney High School; Lynn Siebert, Mercy and Anita Field, Keane High School; and Michael McCluskey of Scranton University last Sunday's Sodalists Conference. Twenty hundred young Sodalists heard his call for a five-point program of action.

National

big blazer boom!

THE FASHION RAGE FOR TEEN BOYS IN FOUR SPRING COLORS

$22.95

The classic wool flannel blazer—a "must" in every boy's spring wardrobe! Traditionally styled by flintstones with meticulous attention to detail. In sizes to fit teen boys 13 to 20.

P.S.—we also can fit the "hardcore" 16" tall, short and happy.

Flannel dress slacks... $10.95

Our famous Westcoaster. Wool-wool flannels in try or beltless styles. Tailored in the slim-trim look of today. Waists 26 to 32. Incomparable match for the blazer!

Downtown, Southern, Flitford Plaza

The services will be conducted at 8:30 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. on Sunday, March 15.