

St. Anne
This Sunday

Aquinas Announces Grants

A bulletin announcing the names of the 125 scholarship winners of the Aquinas for the year 1954 was announced today by Rev. William J. Weag and Edmund Wozniak, Fergus J. Sheehy, S.S.B., principal of the local Catholic boys' school.

Mr. and Mrs. Julian B. Burt, 155 Lincoln St., a student of St. Joseph school, Ligon, Pa., was named as the winner of the $1,000 grant. He is the son of Dr. Charles S. Ligon of Kenmore, a 1950 graduate of Aquinas Institute. Dr. Ligon formerly lived in Rochester.

Other full tuition winners are: James G. Hart, C.S.B., whooping cough, a student at Holy Cross school, placed first in the recent Aquinas Forensic Scholarship Competition, to qualify for his grant.

Partial scholarships were won by James G. Hart, C.S.B., St. Joseph school, Ligon, Pa.; Thomas Lockinger, 102 Alpha St., Holy Cross school, Stevens Point, Wis.; and Albert Kette, 128 Eastman Ave., also of Sacred Heart Cathedral school. George also won a partial scholarship in the boys' examination at Aquinas. These said.

Panel of Three On Race Topic

A priest, a doctor and a university professor will be panel members at a meeting of the Rochester Catholic Interracial Council at Blessed Sacrament parish hall Wednesday, March 18, at 8 p.m.

NAS Launched In Canandaigua

Formation of the newest National Adoration Center at St. Mary's Church here took place Saturday night, March 7, at 10 p.m. Rev. Albert J. Crimmins, pastor, was assisted in inaugurating the adoration for men by leaders of the Rochester Society.

Earlier Courier, Earlier Deadline

Your Courier Journal will arrive a day earlier beginning in April. Delivery date will be Thursday each week, instead of Friday.

Deadlines for all news items will also move up a day, to Monday noon.

Pictures of organizations planning an event should be taken ten days prior to publication date. Arrangements, therefore, should be made about two weeks before the picture is to appear.

Symbol of Holy Week

MATTHEW TEMPLE, eighth grader at St. Margaret Mary School, was asked to draw a picture expressing his feelings about Holy Week. In explaining his drawing, he said that the Chalice and Host represent the host of the Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist on Holy Thursday, the sign is a symbol of the Holy Week and the Holy tells of the life of Christ. Matthew's drawing, "A Holy Week Calendar" depicting the life of the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Temple, 75 Northfield Road, Irondequoit.

St. Patrick's Day Festivities Set

Irish societies of Rochester are planning religious observances and festivities to mark the Feast of St. Patrick, March 17. The Memorial Mass in honor of the late President John F. Kennedy will be conducted at 115 Buffalo Road, at 10 a.m. on Saturday, March 13. The Knights of Equity and the Daughters of Erin dinner program is being directed by Donahue O'Reilly, vice knight; George W. Moore, chairman and Joseph P. Kennedy, co-chairman. Michael T. Ryan and Christopher A. Dolan, vice honorary chairman.

William E. Kelly will be toastmaster and Patrick J. Murphy, master of ceremonies at the dinner.

The entertainment program includes dinner music and dancing by "The Irish Melodians" orchestra. Songs by Dorothy Rose.

The traditional Knights of Equity and Daughters of Erin 25th annual banquet, March 17, 7 p.m. at the Power Hotel will begin at 7 p.m. Bishop Mahony will be guest of honor.

The Irish Club of the Gaelic Athletic Association program Peggy Flinn, Elaine O'Connell, Barbara Jean Strick and Virginia Ann Sumner.

Miss Nellie Sweeney, president of the Daughters of Erin, appointed Mrs. Arthur Hart chairman of the women's group assisted by Mesdames George Moore, John Farrell, William Higgins, Edward Kelly, Patrick Walsh, Gordon Fess, Henry Schinck, Martin Schill and the Misses Mollie McEgan, Mary Hyatt, Sara Malton, Mollie Kelly, Francis Dolan and Ann Dolan.

The Harp will conduct a dance, Saturday, March 14 at 115 Buffalo Road. The Harp dancers will feature special entertainment. On St. Patrick's Night a dance and celebration will be held at the club according to Seamus McLaughlin, president.

Other groups planning programs will be found elsewhere in this issue.

Legion of Mary Rites Sunday

Nearly one thousand Legion of Mary members will renew their consecration to the Blessed Virgin Mary and pledge another year of apostolic action at an "aces" ceremony in St. Margaret Church, Irondequoit, Sunday, March 15, at 3 p.m.

The Legion members and 20,000 auxiliary members.

THE ACES RITE - a Latin word for an army drawn up in formation - was held last Sunday for Blintra area members at St. Patrick's Church there.

Blintra representatives scheduled for Blintra area members at St. Augustine Church, Buffalo, April 5 for "aces" rites. Rochester members at St. Michael's Church, also on that date, and for "aces" rites members at St. Anne's Church on Buffalo, April 12.

Speakers at these ceremonies will be Rev. J. Joseph Hoehly at this Sunday's rite, Rev. Albert Gorman at Buffalo, Father Joseph at St. Monica's and Rev. Michael Ryan at St. Anne's Church. At last Sunday's Blintra rite, Rev. Edward Reynolds, a regional officer of the Legion was speaker.

Solemn Novena At St. Augustine

A Solemn Novena in honor of the Lady of the Miraculous Medal will be conducted at St. Augustine Church, 416 Hill St. according to the Rev. Fr. John M. Duffy, pastor.

The Novena will be conducted by Rev. Bernard J. McElroy, C.M., assistant vicar, Blintra.

The services will be conducted each day 8:45 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. and on Sunday, 8 p.m.

Socialists at Conference

Stephen Galloos, Mooney High School; Lynn Siebert, Mercy, and Anita Field, Keaney High School, met Michael McLaughlin at Scranton University last Sunday's Socially Conference Day. Twelve hundred young Socialists heard his call for a five-point program of action.

National

big blazer boom!

THE FASHION RAGE FOR TEEN BOYS IN FOUR SPRING COLORS

$22.95

The classic wool flannel blazer - a "must" in every boy's spring wardrobe! Traditionally styled by flared tails with meticulous attention to detail. In sizes to fit teen boys 13 to 20.

It's - we also can fit the "harder" 18" tall, short and husky.

Flannel dress slacks ... $10.95

Our famous Westcoaster Wool-wool flannels in try or belted styles. Tailored in the slim-trim look of today. Waists 26 to 32. Incomparable match for the Blazer!

Downs, Southern, Plaid, Plain