Holy Communion will be given during the Mass about 9:20 p.m. (Attendance at this Mass does not satisfy the Sunday obligation).

Easter Sunday—Low Masses, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10 a.m. and 12:30 noon.

Bishop Kearney will celebrate Solemn Pontifical Mass at 11 a.m.

Music for Palm Sunday's Pontifical Mass, for Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Easter Vigil services and for the Pontifical Mass on Easter Sunday will be furnished by St. Bernard's Seminary Choir. Rev. Robert Smith is choir director; Mr. Frank Pilecki, Cathedral organist. Students of St. Bernard's will also conduct the ceremonies.

ALL PARISH churches will conduct similar rites. Parish bulletins should be consulted for precise times of services.

10 Notre Dame Seniors Named To Honor Society

Ten Notre Dame seniors will be inducted into the National Honor Society during a candlelight ceremony on March 24. Those accepted into the society are:

Margaret Babcock, Bernadette Bauer, Thomas Butler, James Carosello, Catherine Creighton, Elizabeth Eckman, Joan Farnar, Carol Lepore, JoAnne Lynon and Michael Schiefen.

In order to qualify for membership in the National Honor Society a senior must have an average of 90 per cent or above and possess the qualities of leadership.

The induction program is the first such formal induction for the National Honor Society to be held at Notre Dame. A solemn and dignified stage will be set in order to emphasize the importance of the ceremony.

A five-branch candelabra will be placed on the stage, with each candle symbolizing a quality desired in each candidate. The center candle stands for the light of knowledge. The other four represent character, scholarship, leadership and service.

As each candle is lit, its significance will be explained and the importance of the qualities represented in the development of a well educated citizen stated. After each candidate has lit his candle from the light of knowledge, they will recite the pledge of membership. Pins and

Events of Holy Week

"WHAT HOLY WEEK MEANS TO ME" was expressed in art by Linda Nufryk, seventh grader at St. Rita's School, West Webster. In the drawing, Linda, who is 13, depicts Christ's arrival in Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, the Last Supper, the Crucifixion, the Entombment and the Resurrection... "all those things he did for us to atone for sins," Linda is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Nufryk, 679 Voburg Road, Webster.

Rochesterian, Father Hart Named Aquinas Principal

Rev. Leon G. Hart, C.S.B., vice-principal and former student at Aquinas Institute, has been named principal of Aquinas.

He will succeed Rev. Fergus J. Sheehy, C.S.B., who remains as religious superior of the 45 Basilian Fathers who staff the school.

The appointments, effective September, 1964, were announced today by Very Rev. Joseph C. Wey, C.S.B., of Toronto, superior-general of the Basilian order.

A NATIVE of Rochester, Father Hart entered the Holy Spirit program of Basilian study in 1944, after he graduated from Aquinas. He earned his bachelor's degree from St. Michael's College in the University of Toronto and his master's degree from the University of Rochester. He also studied at the University of Washington, St. Charles Borromeo parish.

Father Hart has been the Aquinas vice-principal since 1958. Prior to that he taught at Catholic Central High School in Detroit, Mich. and at St. Thomas High Schools in Houston, Texas. He is the first Rochesterian to head the school since the Basilian Fathers assumed direction of Aquinas in 1937.

He is the son of Mr. Leon G. Hart of 36 Eglantine Rd. and the late Mr. Hart, for many years a teacher at the old Paul Revere Trade School. The Harts are long time residents of St. Charles Borromeo parish.

Father Hart is well known in local education circles and holds membership in the National Education Association, the National Catholic Education Association and the current Rochester Chapter of the Catholic American in Washington, D.C. Councilors Association. He is also a member of Phi Delta Kappa, an educational fraternity.

Vocation Display At St. Casimir's

The Rosary and Sacred Heart Society of St. Casimir's Church, Elmira, displayed an exhibit on vocations, at the March meeting. A placard featured pictures on various vocations and a reminder that "Family attitudes direct and guide vocations."

TO HIGHLIGHT the evening's theme of vocation guidance, dolls of various religious orders were placed at the tables.

Mrs. Jerome P. Giblin, president of the society, presided over the meeting. Plans were announced for a Holy Hour on Holy Thursday, March 26, to be conducted by the Rev. Leonard P. Kujawski, for all members, from 9 to 10 p.m.

A bake sale will be held on Sunday, April 5.
