Sacred Heart Society Breakfast

Prison Chaplain Speaks At KC St. Patrick's Fete

Corning — "Faith comes from learning," and St. Patrick taught four essential lessons the Rev. James Collins, chaplain of Elmira Reformatory, told 100 members and guests attending the Knights of Columbus St. Patrick's dinner in the K. of C. Home.

Essentially St. Patrick taught, said Father Collins, "fidelity to St. Peter's chair; devotion to Mary, the Mother of God; reverence for the dead, and obedience and respect for priests and bishops."

He explained how the people of Ireland have followed the teachings of St. Patrick and stressed that "there is great unity in the Catholic Church in Ireland."

The Rev. William Tobin, Council chaplain, gave the invocation and Alfred Connaughton led group singing of Irish melodies with Mrs. Joseph Daley as pianist. Mrs. Rudolf Oyr was soloist, singing "Irish Lullaby," "Danny Boy" and "Mother Mary."

Past grand knights were honored including Paul Lovette, who was celebrating his 60-year membership. Other 60-year members present were William Cuminsky, Leo McMahon and Gerald Hart.

Dinner was served by the daughters of the Knights and their friends, Patty Roberts, Kathy Nelson, Teresa Schaller, Susan Gols, Gretchen Pater, Mary Kearney and Mary Jo Birmingham. Mrs. John Kostolansky was in charge of the dining room.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Griffin were chairmen. Guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Older, chairmen of the reception committee. Mr. and Mrs. George Vargamini, Mr. and Mrs. D. McLaughlin, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Connaughton and Mr. and Mrs. Daley.

Saviour's Resurrection To Be Celebrated

Traditional observance of the Saviour's Resurrection will take place in churches of the Diocese of Rochester with age-old ceremonies and stirring church music.

Bishop Kearney will celebrate the Solemn Pontifical Mass, at Sacred Heart Cathedral, Easter Sunday at 11 a.m.

Holy Saturday, a day of waiting will be marked in the Cathedral with Easter Vigil Service including Blessing of the New Fire, Paschal Candle and Baptismal Vows, Litany of the Saints at 7:30 p.m.

Bishop Casey will celebrate Solemn Pontifical Mass of the Easter Vigil at 8:45 p.m.

A dispensation from fast and abstinence has been given by Bishop Kearney for Holy Saturday for Catholics in the Rochester Diocese.

Music for Palm Sunday's Pontifical Mass, for Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Easter Vigil services and for the Easter Sunday Pontifical Mass is being furnished by St. Bernard's Seminary, nationally-known choir. Rev. Robert Smith is choir director. Frank Pilecki, Cathedral organist. Students of St. Bernard's Seminary will also partake in the ceremonies.

All parish churches will conduct similar rites. Parish bulletins should be consulted for precise times of services.

Columbus Ladies Meet Plan Initiation Rites

Corning — The Ladies of Columbus held their regular monthly meeting at the K. of C. Home and formulated plans for an initiation ceremony to be held April 12 at 3 p.m.

MRS. EDWARD Griffin will act as chairman.

During the work session, as members sewed cancer dressings for the Friendly Red Door, punch was served by Mrs. Edmund Gay and Mrs. Julia Roche.

The business meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. Raymond E. Older, with group recitation of prayer, following which a report was given by Mrs. John McFall. Mrs. Older reported on the recent smorgasbord supper and the recent St. Patrick's dinner held jointly by the Knights of Columbus and their wives.

Mrs. Griffin presented the list of prospective members who had applied for initiation. Various committees were tentatively set up for the initiation with final details still to be completed.

Mrs. Older read an acknowledgment from the Catholic Relief Service in New York for the layettes sent to them from the organization. These have been sent in for distribution to the needy throughout the world she said.

Mrs. Older also announced that she and her husband had delivered six large cartons of sample drugs to the Propagation of the Faith office in Rochester last week. These were collected from local doctors and dentists and will be processed before being sent on to foreign missions.

AN AMENDMENT to the present by-laws was offered and passed designating the final meeting of the year to be in May, rather than in June. Mrs. Dudley McLaughlin was appointed chairman of that committee. Mrs. McLaughlin announced it would be in the form of a "green supper" at which time new members would be welcomed into the organization and election of officers for the coming year would be held.

Rosarians At St. Mary's Set Fund-Raising Events

Corning—Members of St. Mary's Rosary and Altar Society made plans for two fund raising events and heard a talk on mental health by Mrs. Henry Hurlbut of Addison in the school hall.

Plans were made for a bake sale. Mrs. Joseph Falk and Mrs. Gerald Keagle were appointed co-chairmen. A supper will be served April 30 at St. Mary's School Hall with Mrs. Michael Cuda as chairman.

As the result of an informative talk on mental health by Mrs. Hurlbut, the group decided to form a mental health committee within the society and Mrs. Raymond Older was named chairman.

MRS. ALLAN Bassage, president, was in charge. She appointed the following nominating committee: Mrs. Edmund Gay, Mrs. Eugene Knapp, Mrs. Francis Hultzman, Mrs. Keagle, and Mrs. John Kester. They will make their report at the April 16 meeting.

There will be a communion breakfast in May, although no definite date has been set. Mrs. Ralph Rossi and Mrs. Frank Pitarazzi are co-chairmen of arrangements.

The meeting was held following Rosary and Benediction at the church. The Rev. James F. Gormley, moderator, was honored with a gift the occasion being his birthday. Mrs. William A. Gernon, a member of the society who died recently, was remembered during prayers.

The meeting was closed with a tape recording of "The Way Of The Cross At Lourdes."
