Today, your Catholic Courier Inaugurates a change in delivery day. Look for your Catholic Courier every Thursday morning from now on. This change in day of delivery is planned to give you extra time for the enjoyment of your Catholic Courier news; time to plan for your family's participation in the various church, club and civic events. Time too, to select the many vital purchases you make each week for your family's comfort and welfare.

The change in delivery is the first of several planned changes. Changes that you, the reader, requested in the survey conducted last year. We hope our long range plans meet with your approval and we will continue to merit the acceptance you accord your Catholic diocesan newspaper.

One change you won't see is our policy of accepting advertising. All our advertisers are members of a select group. Those whose integrity in business dealings is unquestioned and consistent. Their support of the Courier makes our growth a reality. Your support of them is a sign of true Catholic action in voicing thanks and approval.
