Win At Fordham

Two Aquinas Institute juniors argued their way to a first place tie and an undefeated record in the annual Fordham University High School Debate Tournament held during Easter week in New York City.

Thomas Farrell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Farrell Sr. of Sacred Heart parish and James Hendrick, son of Mrs. Marie Hendrick of Our Lady of Perpetual Help parish defeated major debate opponents of the Eastern Shore at the tournament. They defeated over six rounds and thereby tie with St. Peter's Prep. of N.J. for first place honors in the negative team division. Over 44 secondary schools from the eastern portion of the U.S. participated in the two day affair, April 2 and 3.

The Fordham Tourney was the second attended by the Aquinas Varsity Squad on an Easter Week trip that included a stop at Boston College earlier in the week where seniors Vladimir Rudy and Richard Campbell scored a record of four wins and two losses among a field of 58 schools from all over the U.S.

Friday and Saturday, April 10 and 11, Aquinas Varsity and Junior-Varsity debaters will attend the state finals in debate at Albany State College. Robert Craig, a junior at Aquinas will also compete in the state finals in oral interpretation. This nine member delegation represents the largest contingent attending the Albany finals from any high school in Western New York.
